Iesus Christe. [7] But we haue this treasure in earthen vessels, that the excellencie of that power myght be Gods and not ours.

[8] We are troubled on euery syde, yet are we not in distresse: we are in pouertie, but not ouercome of pouertie: [9] We are persecuted, but are not forsaken ther in: we are cast doune, neuerthelesse we perishe not. [11] For we which lyue, are alwayes deliuered vnto death for Iesus sake, that the life also of Iesus myght appere in our mortal fleshe. [12] So then death worketh in vs, and life in you. [13] And because we haue the same Sprite of fayth, according as it is written, I beleued, and therfore haue I spoken: we also beleue, and therfore also speake.

[14] Knowing that he which raysed vp the Lord Iesus, shal rayse vs vp also by the meanes of Iesus, and shal set vs with you. [15] For all thynges are for your sakes that that moste plenteous grace by the thankes, geuen of many, may redounde to the prayse of God. [16] Therfore, we faint not, but thogh our outwarde man perishe, yet the inwarde man is renewed dayly. [17] For the light shortnes of our tribulation, causeth vnto vs a farre moste excellent and an eternal waight of glorie: [18] While we loke, not on the thinges which are sene, but on the thinges which are not sene: for thinges which are sene, are temporal: but thynges which are not sene, are eternal.

5. FOR we knowe that if the tabernacle of this our earthy howse shalbe destroyed, we haue a building geuen of God, that is, a house not made with handes, but eternal in heauen. shal not be founde naked. 4 For in dede we that are in this tabernacle, syghe and are burdened, wherein whiles we are, we wolde not be vnclothed, but wolde be clothed vpon, that mortalitie myght be swalowed vp of lyfe. 5 He that hath created vs for this thing, is God, who also hath geuen vnto vs the earnest of the Sprite. 6 Therfore, we are alway bolde and knowe that as longe as we are at home in the body, we are absent from the Lord. 7 For we walke in faith, and not by sight. 8 Neuerthelesse, we are of good conforte, and had leuer to remoue out of the body, and to go to dwel with the Lord. 9 Wherfore also we couet, that bothe dwelling at home, and remouing from home, we may be acceptable to him. 10 For we must all appeare before the iudgement seat of Christ, that euery man may receaue the things which are of his body, according to that he hath done, whether it be good or bad. 11 Knowing therfore the terror of the Lord, we bring men to the faith. and we haue approued our selues vnto God. clothed, not naked. 4 For vve also that are in this tabernacle, grone being burdened: because vve would not be spoiled, but ouerclothed, that that vvhich is mortal, might be svvallovved vp of life.

5 And he that maketh vs to this same, is God, vvho hath giuen vs the pledge of the Spirit. 6 Being bold therfore alvvaies, and knovving that vvhile vve are in the body, vve are pilgrimes from God, (7 for vve vvalke by faith and not by sight) 8 but vve are bold, and haue a good vvil to be pilgrimes rather from the body, and to be present vvith our Lord. 9 And therfore vve endeuouer, vvhether absent or present, to please him. 10 For vve must al be manifested before the iudgement seate of Christ, that euery one may receiue the proper things of the body, according as he hath done, either good or euil.

naked. 4 For, wee that are in this tabernacle, do grone, being burdened, not for that we would bee vnclothed, but clothed vpon, that mortalitie might bee swallowed vp of life. 5 Now hee that hath wrought vs for the selfe same thing, is God, who also hath giuen vnto vs the earnest of the Spirit.

6 Therefore we are alwayes confident, knowing that whilest wee are at home in the body, wee are absent from the Lord. 7 (For wee walke by faith, not by sight.) 8 We are confident, I say, and willing rather to be absent from the body, and to be present with the Lord. 9 Wherefore we [α] labour, that whether present or absent, we may be accepted of him. 10 For we must all appeare before the iudgement seat of Christ, that euery one may receiue the things done in his body, according to that he hath done, whether it be good or bad. 11 Knowing therefore the terrour of the Lord, we perswade men; but we are made manifest vnto God, and I trust also, are made manifest in your consciences. 12 For wee commend not our selues againe vnto you, but giue you occasion to glory on our behalfe, that you may haue somewhat to answere them, which glory [β] in appearance, and not in heart.

13 For whether wee be besides our selues, it is to God: or whether we be sober, it is for your cause. 14 For the loue of Christ constreineth vs, because we thus iudge: that if one died for all, then were all dead: 15 And that he died for all, that they which liue, should not hencefoorth liue vnto themselues, but vnto him which died for them, and rose againe. 16 Wherefore hencefoorth know we no man, after the flesh: yea, though we haue knowen Christ after the flesh, yet now hencefoorth know wee him no more. 17 Therefore if any man be in Christ, [γ] he is a new creature: old things are past away, behold, all things are become new. 18 And all things are of God, who hath reconciled vs to himselfe by Iesus Christ, and you are straitened. [13] But hauing the same revvard (I speake as to my children) be you also dilated. [14] Beare not the yoke vvith infidels. For vvhat participation hath iustice vvith iniquitie? or vvhat societie is there betwene light and darkenes? [15] And vvhat agreement vvith Christ and Belial? or vvhat part hath the faithful vvith the infidel?

[16] And vvhat agreement hath the temple of God vvith idols? For you are the temple of the liuing God, as God saith, That I vvil dvvel, and vvalke in them, and vvil be their God: and they shal be my people. [17] For the vvhich cause, Goe out of the middes of them, and separate your selues, saith our Lord, and touch not the vncleane: and I vvil receiue you. [18] and I vvil be a father to you: and you shal be my sonnes and daughters, saith our Lord omnipotent.

[14] Be ye not vnequally yoked together with vnbeleeuers: for what fellowship hath righteousnesse with vnrighteousnesse? and what communion hath light with darkenesse? [15] And what concord hath Christ with Belial? or what part hath he that beleeueth, with an infidel? [16] And what agreement hath the Temple of God with idoles? for ye are the Temple of the liuing God, as God hath said, I will dwell in them, and walke in them, and I will be their God, and they shall be my people. [17] Wherefore come out from among them, and be yee separate, saith the Lord, and touch not the vncleane thing, and I will receiue you, [18] And will be a Father vnto you, and yee shall be my sonnes and daughters, saith the Lord Almightie.

7. HAUING therefore these promises (dearely beloued) let vs cleanse our selues from all filthinesse of the flesh and spirit, perfecting holinesse in the feare of God. reioyce the more. [8] Wherfore though I made you sory with a letter, I repent not: though I did repent. For I perceave that that same pistle made you sory, though it were but for a ceason. [9] But I now reioyce, not that ye were sory, but that ye so sorowed, that ye repented. For ye sorowed godly: so that in nothynge ye were hurte by vs. [10] For godly sorowe causeth repentaunce vnto salvacion not to be repented of: when worldly sorow causeth deeth.

[11] Beholde what diligence this godly sorowe that ye toke, hath wrought in you: yee it caused you to cleare youre selves. It caused indignacion, it caused feare, yt caused desyre, it caused a fervent mynde, it caused punysshment. For in all thynges ye have shewed youre selues that ye were cleare in that matter. [12] Wherfore though I wrote vnto you, I did it not for his cause that did hurte, nether for his cause that was hurte: but that oure good mynde whych we have towarde you in the sight of god, myght appere vnto you.

[13] Therfore we are comforted, because ye are comforted: yee and excedyngly the moare ioyed we, for the ioye that Titus had: because his sprete was refresshed of you all. [14] I am therfor, not now ashamed, though I bosted my sylfe to hym of you. For as all thynges which I preached vnto you are true, even so is oure bostynge, that I bosted my silfe to Titus with all, founde true. [15] And now is his inwarde affection more aboundant towarde you, when he remembreth the obedience of every one of you: how with feare and trymblynge ye receaved hym. [16] I reioyce that I maye be bolde over you in all thynges.

that I reioyced the more. [8] For though I made you sory with a letter, I repent not: though I dyd repent. For I perceaue, that the same epistle made you sory, though it were but for a ceason. [9] But I now reioyce, not that ye were sory, but that ye so sorowed that ye repented. For ye sorowed godly: so that in nothynge ye were hurte by vs. [10] For godly sorowe causeth repentaunce vnto saluacion, not to be repented of: contrary wyse worldely sorow causeth deeth.

[11] For beholde, what diligence this godly sorowe that ye toke, hath wrought in you: yee it caused you to cleare youre selues. It caused indignacion, it caused feare, it caused desyre, it caused punisshement: For in all thynges ye haue shewed your selues, that ye were cleare in that matter. [12] Wherfore, though I wrote vnto you, I did it not for hys cause that had done the hurte, nether for his cause that was hurte: but that youre good mynde for vs might appeare amonge you in the syght of God.

[13] Therfore, we are comforted, because ye are comforted: yee and excedyngly the moare ioyed we, for the ioye that Titus had: because hys sprete was refresshed of you all. [14] I am therfore not now ashamed, though I boasted my selfe to him of you. For as all thynges which we spake vnto you are true, euen so oure boastinge, that I made vnto Titus is founde true. [15] And his inwarde affeccion is more aboundant towarde you, when he remembreth the obedience of you all: how with feare and tremblyng ye receaued him. [16] I reioyce that I maye be bolde ouer you in all thynges.

reioyced muche more. [8] For, thogh I made you sory with a letter, I repent not, thogh I dyd repent: for I perceaue that the same epistle made you sory, thogh it were but for a ceason.

[9] I nowe reioyce, not that ye were sory, but that ye so sorowed that ye amended: for ye sorowed Godly: so that in nothing ye were hurt by vs. [10] For Godly sorowe causeth amendement vnto saluation, not to be repented of: when the worldly sorowe causeth death. [11] For beholde this thinge, that ye haue bene Godly sory, what great care it hath wroght in you? yea, how hath it caused you to cleare your selues: yea what indignation hath it caused: yea what feare: yea how great desire: yea what a feruente mynde: yea what punishement? finally in all thinges ye haue shewed your selues, that ye are cleare in this matter. [13] Therfore we were comforted, because ye were comforted: but moste of all we reioysed, for the ioye that Titus had: because hys sprite was refresshed by you all. [14] For if I boasted my selfe any thing, to him of you, I was not ashamed: but as all thynges which I preached vnto you are true, euen so is our boasting, wherof I boasted my selfe to Titus, founde true. [15] And his inwarde affection is more abundant towarde you, when he remembreth the obedience of euery one of you: and how with feare and trembling ye receaued him. [16] I reioyce therfore that I may put my confidence in you, in all thynges.

8. I DO you also to wit brethren, of the grace of God bestowed vpon the Churches of Macedonia. [2] How that in great trial by affliction, their ioye abunded, reioyced the more. [8] For although I made you sorie in an epistle, it repenteth me not: albeit it repented me, seing that the same epistle (although but for a time) did make you sorie. [9] Novv I am glad: not because you vvere made sorie, but because you vvere made sorie to penance. For you vvere made sorie according to God, that in nothing vou should suffer detriment by vs.

[10] For the sorovv that is according to God, vvorketh penance vnto saluation that is stable: but the sorovv of the vvorld vvorketh death. [11] For behold this very thing, that you vvere made sorie according to God, hovv great carefulnes it vvorketh in you: yea defense, yea indignation, yea feare, yea desire, yea emulation, yea reuenge. in al things you haue shevved your selues to be vndefiled in the matter.

[12] Therfore although I vvrote to you, not for him that did the iniurie, nor for him that suffered: but to manifest our carefulnes that vve haue for you before God,

[13] therfore vve are comforted. But in our consolation, vve did the more abundantly reioyce vpon the ioy of Titus, because his spirit vvas refreshed of al you. [14] And if to him I gloried any thing of you, I am not confounded: but as vve spake al things to you in truth, so also our glorying that vvas to Titus, is made a truth, [15] and his bovvels are more aboundantly toward you: remembring the obedience of you al, hovv vvith feare and trembling you receiued him. [16] I reioyce that in al things I haue confidence in you.

8. AND vve doe you to vnderstand, brethren, the grace of God, that is giuen in the churches of Macedonia, [2] that in much experience of tribulation they had so that I reioyced the more. [8] For though I made you sory with a letter, I doe not repent, though I did repent: For I perceiue that the same Epistle hath made you sorie, though it were but for a season. [9] Now I reioyce, not that ye were made sorie, but that yee sorrowed to repentance: for ye were made sory [α] after a godly maner, that ye might receiue damage by vs in nothing. [10] For godly sorrow worketh repentance to saluation not to be repented of, but the sowrrow of the world worketh death. [11] For behold this selfe same thing that yee sorrowed after a godly sort, what carefulnesse it wrought in you, yea, what clearing of your selues, yea, what indignation, yea, what feare, yea, what vehement desire, yea, what zeale, yea what reuenge; In all things yee haue approoued your selues to be cleare in this matter.

[12] Wherefore though I wrote vnto you, I did it not for his cause that had done the wrong, nor for his cause that suffered wrong, but that our care for you in the sight of God might appeare vnto you. [13] Therefore we were comforted in your comfort, yea and exceedingly the more ioyed wee for the ioy of Titus, because his spirit was refreshed by you al. [14] For if I haue boasted any thing to him of you, I am not ashamed but as we speake all things to you in truth, euen so our boasting which I made before Titus, is found a trueth. [15] And his [β] inward affection is more aboundant toward you, whilest he remembreth the obedience of you all, how with feare and trembling you receiued him. [16] I reioyce therefore that I haue confidence in you in all things.

and the pouertie which had consumed them, euen to the very botome, abunded vnto their moste riche liberalitie. [3] For to their powers (I beare recorde) yea, and beyonde their power, they were willing of their owne accorde. [4] And prayed vs with great instance, that we wolde receaue their benefite, and suffre them to be partakers with other in ministring to the Sainctes.

[5] And this they dyd, not as we loked fore: but gaue their owne selues fyrst to the Lord, and after vnto vs, by the wyl of God. [6] So that we could not but desire Titus to accomplishe the same beneuolence among you also, euen as he had begone. [7] Therfore, as ye are riche in all things, in faith, and in worde, and in knowledge, and in all diligence, and in loue towards vs, euen so se that ye be plentuous in this beneuolence also. [8] This say I, not as commanding, but because other are so feruent, therfore proue I your loue, whether it be syncere: [9] For ye know the liberalitie of our Lord Iesus Christ, which thogh he were ryche, yet for your sakes became poore: that ye through his pouertie, myght be made ryche. [10] And I shewe my minde here in: for this is expedient for you, which began not to do only, but also to wil, a yere a go. [11] Now therfore performe the thinge, that ye began to do: that as ther was in you a redynes to wyl, euen so ye may performe the dede, of that which ye haue.

[12] For yf ther be fyrst a willing mynde, it is accepted according to that a man hath, and not according to that he hath not. [13] Nether is it that other men shoulde be freed and you burdened. [14] But vpon like condition, at this time your abundance supplieth their lacke: that also their abundance may supply your lacke: that ther may be equalitie. [15] Agreing to that which is written, He that gathered muche, had neuer the more aboundance, and he that gathered lytle, had neuerthelesse. aboundance of ioy, and their very deepe pouertie abounded vnto the riches of their simplicitie,

[3] for according to their povver (I giue them testimonie) and aboue their povver they vvere willing, [4] vvith much exhortation requesting vs the grace and communication of the ministerie that is done tovvard the saincts. [7] But as in al things you abound in faith, and vvord, and knovvledge, and al carefulnes, moreouer also in your charitie tovvard vs, that in this grace also you may abounde. [8] I speake not as commaunding: but by the carefulnes of others, approuing also the good disposition of your charitie. [9] For you knovv the grace of our Lord IESVS Christ, that for you he vvas made poore, wheras he vvas riche: that by his pouertie you might be riche. [10] And in this point I giue counsel: for this is profitable for you, vvhich haue begonne not only to doe, but also to be willing, from the yere past:

[11] but novv perfourme ye it also in deede: that as your minde is prompt to be vvilling, so it may be also to perfourme, of that vvhich you haue. [12] For if the vvil be prompt: it is accepted according to that vvhich it hath, not according to that vvhich it hath not. [13] For not that other should haue ease, and you tribulation: [14] but by an equalitie. Let in this present time your aboundance supplie their vvant: that their aboundance also may supplie your vvant, that there be an equalitie, [15] as it is vvritten: He that had much, abounded not: and he that had litle, vvanted not.

[3] For to their power (I beare record) yea, and beyond their power they were willing of themselues: [4] Praying vs with much intreatie, that we would receiue the gift, and take vpon vs the fellowship of the ministring to the Saints. [5] And this they did, not as we hoped, but first gaue their owne selues to the Lord, and vnto vs by the will of God. [6] Insomuch that we desired Titus, that as he had begun, so he would also finish in you the same grace also. [7] Therfore (as ye abound in euery thing, in faith, and vtterance, and knowledge, and in all diligence, and in your loue to vs) see that yee abound in this grace also.

[8] I speake not by commandement, but by occasion of the forwardnesse of others, and to prooue the sincerity of your loue. [9] For yee knowe the grace of our Lord Iesus Christ, that though hee was rich, yet for your sakes hee became poore, that yee through his pouertie might be rich. [10] And herein I giue my aduice, for this is expedient for you, who haue begun before, not onely to doe, but also to be [a] forward a yeere agoe. [11] Now therefore performe the doing of it, that as there was a readinesse to will, so there may be a performance also out of that which you haue. [12] For if there bee first a willing minde, it is accepted according to that a man hath, and not according to that he hath not. [13] For I meane not that other men be eased, and you burthened: [14] But by an equalitie: that now at this time your abundance may be a supply for their want, that their abundance also may be a supply for your want, that there may be equalitie. [15] As it is written, He that had gathered much, had nothing ouer, and hee that had gathered little, had no lacke. [16] But thankes bee to God which put the same earnest care into the heart of Titus for you.

[a] Gr. willing.

Titus, 17 whych accepted the request: ye rather he was so well willing, that of his awne accorde, he came vnto you.

20 For this we exchewe, that eny man shulde rebuke vs in this plenteous distribucyon that is mynistred by vs (to the glori of the lorde) 21 and make prouysion for honest thinges: not onely in the sight of the lorde, but also in the syght of men.

22 We haue sent with them a brother of oures, whom we haue ofte tymes proued diligent in many thinges, but now moch more diligent. The greate confidence which I haue in you, hath caused me this to do: 23 partely for Titus sake which is my felowe and helper as concernyng you, Partely because of other which are oure brethren, and the messengers of the congregacyons, and the glory of Christ. 24 Wherfore, shewe ye vnto them the proffe of youre loue, and of oure boastinge of you in the sight of the congregacyons.

9. towarde you. [17] Both that he accepted the exhortation, and also that he was so wel willing, that of his owne accorde, he went vnto you.

[18] (And we haue sent also with him that brother, whose praise is in the Gospel throughout all the Churches:) [19] And not so only, but is also chosen by election of the Churches to be a felowe in our iorney concerning this beneuolence, that is ministred by vs vnto the prayse of the same Lord, and declaration of your prompt mynde. [20] Auoyding this, that no man should blame vs in this plenteous distribution, that is ministred by vs. [21] For we make prouision for honest thinges, not in the sight of God only, but also in the syght of men. [22] And we haue sent with them our brother, whom we haue ofte tymes proued diligent in many thinges, but now muche more diligent, for the great confidence which I haue in you. [23] Whether any do enquire of Titus, he is my felowe and helper, as concerning you: or els of our brethren, they are messengers of the Churches, and the glorie of Christe) [24] Wherfore shewe towarde them the proffe of your loue, and of the reioysing that we haue of you, that the Churches may se it.

of Titus, [17] for that he admitted in deede exhortation: but being more careful, of his ovvne vvil he vvent vnto you. [18] Vve haue sent also vvith him the brother, vvhose praise is in the Gospel through al the churches: [19] and not only that, but also he vvas ordeined of the churches fellovv of our peregrination, for this grace vvhich is ministred of vs to the glorie of our Lord, and our determined vvil: [20] auoiding this, lest any man might reprehend vs in this fulnes that is ministred of vs.

[21] For vve prouide good things not only before God, but also before men. [22] And vve haue sent vvith them our brother also, vvhom vve haue proued in many things often to be careful: but now much more careful, for the great confidence in you,

[23] either for Titus vvhich is my fellovv and coadiutor tovvard you, or our brethren Apostles of the churches, the glorie of Christ. [24] The declaration therfore vvhich is of your charitie and our glorying for you, declare ye tovvard them in the face of the churches.

9. FOR concerning the ministerie that is done tovvard the sainctes, it is superfluous for me to vvrite vnto you. [2] For I know your prompt minde: for the which I glorie of you to the Macedonians: That Achaia also is ready from the yere past, and your emulation hath prouoked very many. [3] But I haue sent the brethren, that the thing vvhich vve glorie of you, be not made voide in this behalfe, that (as I haue said) you may be ready: [4] lest vvhen the Macedonians shal come vvith me, and finde you vnready, vve (that vve say not, ye) may be ashamed in this substance. [5] Therfore I thought it necessarie to desire the brethren that they vvould come to you, and prepare this blessing before promised,

AUTHORISED—1611.

[17] For indeed he accepted the exhortation, but being more forward, of his owne accord he went vnto you. [18] And wee haue sent with him the brother, whose praise is in the Gospel, throughout all the Churches. [19] And not that onely, but who was also chosen of the Churches to trauaile with vs with this [α] grace which is administred by vs to the glory of the same Lord, and declaration of your readie minde. [20] Auoyding this, that no man should blame vs in this aboundance which is administred by vs. [21] Prouiding for honest things, not onely in the sight of the Lord, but in the sight of men. [22] And we haue sent with them our brother, whom wee haue often times proued diligent in many things, but now much more diligent, vpon the great confidence which [β] I haue in you. [23] Whether any doe enquire of Titus, he is my partner and fellow helper concerning you: or our brethren bee enquired of, they are the messengers of the Churches, and the glory of Christ. [24] Wherefore shew ye to them, and before the Churches, the proofe of your loue, and of our boasting on your behalfe.

9. FOR as touching the ministring to the Saints, it is supperfluous for mee to write to you. [2] For I know the forwardnesse of your mind, for which I boast of you to them of Macedonia, that Achaia, was ready a yeere agoe, and your zeale hath prouoked very many. [3] Yet haue I sent the brethren, least our boasting of you should bee in vaine in this behalfe, that as I saide, yee may be readie. [4] Lest happily if they of Macedonia come with mee, and find you vnprepared, wee (that wee say not, you) should be ashamed in this same confident boasting. [5] Therefore I thought it necessary to exhort the brethren, that they would go before vnto you, and make vp before hand your [γ] bountie.

[17] But let him that reioyceth, reioyce in the Lord. [18] For he that praiseth hym selfe, is not alowed, but he whome the Lord prayseth. 11. VVOULD to God, ye could suffre a lytle my folishnes, and in deed, ye for beare me. [2] For I am gelous ouer you, with godly gelousie: for I haue prepared you, for one housband, to present you a pure virgin to Christe: [3] But I feare lest as the serpent begyled Eue through his sutteltie: euen so your myndes should be corrupte from the simplicitie that is in Christ. [4] For if he that commeth, preacheth another Iesus then him whom we preached: or if ye receaue another sprite then that which ye haue receaued: ether another Gospel, then that ye haue receaued, ye might wel haue suffered him. [5] Verely I suppose that I was not inferior to the very chief Apostles. [6] Thogh I be rude in speakyng, yet I am not so in knowledge. but among you, we haue bene knowen to the vtmost, what we are in all thinges. [7] Dyd I therin synne, because I submitted my selfe, that ye myght be exalted, and because I preached to you the Gospel of God fre? [8] I robbed other Churches, and toke wages of them, to do you seruice withall. [9] And when I was present with you, and had nede, I was not slothful to the hinderance of any man: for that which was lackyng vnto me, the brethren which came from Macedonia supplied, and in all thinges I kept my selfe that I shoulde not be greuous to you, and so wil I kepe my selfe. [10] The trueth of Christ is in me, this reioysing shal not be shut vp against me in the regions of Achaia. [11] Wherfore? because I loue you not? God knoweth. [12] Neuerthelesse what I do, that wil I do: to cut away occasion from them which desire occasion, that they myght be founde lyke vnto vs in that wherin they reioyce. [13] For suche false apostles are deceytful workers, and fashion them selues like vnto the Apostles of Christ. [14] And no maruayle, for Satan him selfe	[17] But he that glorieth, let him glorie in our Lord. [18] For not he that commendeth him self, the same is approued: but vvhom God commendeth. 11. VVOULD God you could beare some litle of my folly: but do ye also support me: [2] for I emulate you vvith the emulation of God. For I haue despoused you to one man, to present you a chaste virgin vnto Christ. [3] But I feare lest, as the serpent seduced Eue by his subteltie, so your senses may be corrupted, and fall from the simplicitie that is in Christ. [4] For if he that commeth, preache an other Christ vvhom we haue not preached, or you receiue an other spirit vvhom you haue not receiued: or an other Gospel vvhich you haue not receiued: you might vvel suffer it. [5] For I suppose that I haue done nothing lesse then the great Apostles. [6] For although rude in speache, yet not in knovvledge. but in al things we are made manifest to you. [7] Or did I commit a sinne, humbling my self, that you might be exalted? because I euangelized vnto you the Gospel of God gratis? [8] Other churches I spoiled, taking a stipend, for your ministerie. [9] And vvhen I vvas vvith you, and had neede, I vvas burdenous to none: for that vvhich I vvanted, the brethren supplied that came from Macedonia: and in al things I haue kept my self vvithout burden to you, and vvil keepe. [10] The truth of Christ is in me, that this glorying shal not be infringed tovvard me in the countries of Achaia. [11] Vvherfore? because I loue you not? God doth knovv. [12] But that vvhich I doe, I vvil also doe, that I may cut avvay the occasion of them that desire occasion: that, in that vvhich they glorie, they may be found euen like vs. [13] For such false apostles are craftie vvorkers, transfiguring them selues into Apostles of Christ. [14] And no maruel: for	ready to our hand. [17] But he that glorieth, let him glory in the Lord. [18] For, not he that commendeth himselfe is approued, but whom the Lord commendeth. 11. WOULD to God you could beare with mee a little in my folly, and in deede [α] beare with me. [2] For I am iealous ouer you with godly iealousie, for I haue espoused you to one husband, that I may present you as a chaste virgin to Christ. [3] But I feare lest by any meanes, as the Serpent beguiled Eue through his subtilty, so your mindes should bee corrupted from the simplicitie that is in Christ. [4] For if he that commeth preacheth another Iesus whome wee haue not preached, or if yee receiue another spirit, which ye haue not receiued, or another Gospel, which ye haue not accepted, yee might well beare with him. [5] For, I suppose, I was not a whit behinde the very chiefest Apostles. [6] But though I be rude in speach, yet not in knowledge; but we haue bene throughly made manifest among you in all things. [7] Haue I committed an offence in abasing my selfe, that you might be exalted, because I haue preached to you the Gospel of God freely? [8] I robbed other Churches, taking wages of them to doe you seruice. [9] And when I was present with you, and wanted, I was chargeable to no man: For that which was lacking to mee, the brethren which came from Macedonia supplied, and in all things I haue kept my selfe from being burthensome to you, and so will I keepe my selfe. [10] As the trueth of Christ is in mee, no man shall [β] stop mee of this boasting in the regions of Achaia. [11] Wherefore? because I loue you not? God knoweth. [12] But what I doe, that I wil doe, that I may cut off occasion from them which desire occasion, that wherein they glory, they may bee found euen as we. [13] For such are false Apostles, deceitfull workers, transforming themselues into the Apostles of Christ. [14] And no marueile, [α] Or, you do beare with me. [β] Gr. this boasting shal not be stopped in me.

Satan him self transfigureth him self into an Angel of light. [15] It is no great matter therfore if his ministers be transfigured as the ministers of iustice: vvhose ende shal be according to their vvorkes.

[16] Againe I say, (let no man thinke me to be foolish: othervvise take me as foolish, that I also may glorie a litle,) [17] that vvhich I speake, I speake not according to God, but as it vvere in foolishnes, in this substance of glorying. [18] Because many glorie according to the flesh, I also vvil glorie. [19] For you do gladly suffer the foolish: vvhereas your selues are vvise.

[20] For you suffer if a man bring you into seruitude, if a man deuoure, if a man take, if a man be extolled, if a man strike you on the face. [21] I speake according to dishonour, as though vve had been vveake in this part. Vvherein any man dare (I speake folishly) I dare also.

[22] They are Hebrevves: and I. They are Israëlites: and I. They are the seede of Abraham: and I. [23] They are the ministers of Christ: and I. (I speake as one scarse vvise) more I: in many moe labours, in prisons more aboundantly, in stripes aboue measure, in deathes often.

[24] Of the Ievves fiue times, did I receiue fourtie, sauing one. [25] Thrise vvas I beaten vvith roddes, once I vvas stoned, thrise I suffred shipvvracke, night and day haue I been in the depth of the sea, [26] in iourneying often, perils of vvaters, perils of theeues, perils of my nation, perils of Gentiles, perils in the citie, perils in the wildernes, perils in the sea, perils among false brethren, [27] in labour and miserie, in much vvatchings, in hunger and thirst, in fastings often, in colde and nakednes, [28] beside those things which are outwardly: my daily instance, the carefulnes of al churches.

GENEVA—1557.

30 If I must nedes reioyce, I wil reioyce of mine infirmities. 31 The God and Father of our Lord Iesus Christe, which is blessed for euermore, knoweth that I lye not. 32 In the citie of Damascus, the gouerner of the people vnder Kynge Aretas, layde watche in the citie of the Damascens, and would haue caught me. 33 And at a wyndowe was I let doune in a basket through the wall, and so escaped hys handes.

12. IT is not expedient for me no dout, to reioyce: neuerthelesse, I wil come to visions and reuelations of the Lord. 2 I knowe a man in Christe, aboue fourtene yeres agone, (whether he were in the body I can not tel, or whether he were out of the body I can not tel: God knoweth) which was taken vp into the thyrde heauen: 3 And I knowe such a man (whether in the body, or out of the body, I can not tell, God knoweth.

4 How that he was taken vp into Paradise, and heard wordes which can not be spoken, which are not in mans power to vtter. 5 Of suche a man wyl I reioyce, of my selfe wyl I not reioyce, except it be of mine infirmities. 6 And thogh I would reioyce, I should not be a fole: for I wil say the trueth. but I refraine, lest any man should thynke of me aboue that he seyth me to be, or heareth of me. 7 And lest I should be exalted out of measure through the abundance of reuelations, there was geuen vnto me a pricke in the fleshe, the messenger of Satan to buffet me, because I should not be exalted out of measure. 8 For this thyng I besoght the Lord thryse, that it myght departe from me. 9 And he sayd vnto me, My grace is sufficient for thee: for my power is made perfect through weakenes. Very gladly therefore wil I reioyce rather in my infirmities, that the power of Christ may dwell in me.

30 If I must glorie: I vvil glorie of the things that concerne my infirmitie. 31 The God and Father of our Lord IESVS Christ, vvho is blessed for euer, knovveth that I lie not.

32 At Damascus the Gouernour of the nation vnder Aretas the king, kept the citie of the Damascenes, for to apprehend me: 33 and through a vvindovv in a basket vvas I let dovvne by the vvall, and so escaped his handes.

12. 7 And lest the greatnes of the reuelations might extoll me, there vvas giuen me a pricke of my flesh, an angel of Satan, to buffet me. 8 For the vvhich thing thrise I besought our Lord, that it might depart from me:

9 and he said to me, My grace sufficeth thee, for povver is perfited in infirmitie. Gladly therfore vvil I glorie in mine infirmitie, that the povver of Christ may dvvel in me. 10 For the vvhich cause I please my self in infirmities, in contumelies, in necessities, in persecutions, in and I burne not? 30 If I must needes glory, I will glory of the things which concerne mine infirmities. 31 The God and Father of our Lord Iesus Christ, which is blessed for euermore, knoweth that I lie not. 32 In Damascus the gouernour vnder Aretas the King, kept the citie with a garison, desirous to apprehend mee. 33 And through a window in a basket was I let downe, by the wall, and escaped his hands.

12. IT is not expedient for me, doubtlesse, to glory, I wil come to visions and reuelations of the Lord. 2 I knewe a man in Christ aboue foureteene yeeres agoe, whether in the body, I cannot tell, or whether out of the body, I cannot tell, God knoweth: such a one, caught vp to the third heauen. 3 And I knew such a man (whether in the body, or out of the body, I cannot tell, God knoweth.) 4 How that he was caught vp into Paradise, and heard vnspeakeable wordes, which it is not [a] lawfull for a man to vtter. 5 Of such a one will I glory, yet of my selfe I will not glory, but in mine infirmities. 6 For though I would desire to glory, I shall not be a foole: for I will say the trueth. But now I forbeare, lest any man should thinke of me aboue that which he seeth mee to bee, or that he heareth of me:

7 And lest I should be exalted aboue measure through the abundance of the reuelations, there was giuen to mee a thorne in the flesh, the messenger of Sathan to buffet me, lest I should be exalted aboue measure. 8 For this thing I besought the Lord thrice, that it might depart from mee. 9 And he said vnto me, My grace is sufficient for thee: for my strength is made perfect in weakenesse. Most gladly therefore will I rather glory in my infirmities, that the power of Christ may rest vpon me. 10 Therefore I take pleasure in infirmities, in reproches, in necessities, in persecutions, in distresses for Christes sake: for when I am weake.

distresses for Christ. for vvhen I am vveake, then am I mightie.

[11] I am become foolish: you haue compelled me. For I ought to haue been commended of you: for I haue been nothing lesse then they that are aboue measure Apostles: although I am nothing. [12] Yet the signes of my Apostleship haue been done vpon you in al patience, in signes and vvonders and mighty deedes. you: In the mouth of tvvo or three vvitnesses shal euery vvord stand. [2] I foretold and doe foretel as present, and novv absent, to them that sinned before, and al the rest, that if I come againe, I vvil not spare. [3] Seeke you an experiment of him that speaketh in me, Christ: vvho in you is not vveake, but is mightie in you? [4] For although he vvas crucified of infirmitie: yet he liueth by the povver of God. For vve also are vveake in him: but vve shal liue vvith him by the povver of God on you.

[5] Trie your ovvne selues if you be in the faith: proue ye your selues. Knovv you not your selues that Christ IESVS is in you, vnlesse perhaps you be reprobates.

[6] But I hope you knovv that vve are not reprobates. [7] And vve pray God, that you doe no euil, not that vve may appeare approued, but that you may doe that vvhich is good, and vve be as reprobates. [8] For vve can not any thing against the truth: but for the truth. [9] For vve reioyce, for that vve are vveake, and you are mightie.

This also vve pray for, your consummation. [10] Therfore these things I vvrite absent: that being present I may not deale hardly according to the povver vvhich our Lord hath giuen me vnto edification and not vnto destruction.

comming to you: in the mouth of two or three witnesses shal euery word be established. [2] I told you before, and foretell you as if I were present the second time, and being absent, now I write to them which heretofore haue sinned, and to all other, that if I come againe I will not spare: [3] Since yee seeke a proofe of Christ, speaking in me, which to youward is not weake, but is mighty in you. [4] For though hee was crucified through weaknesse, yet he liueth by the power of God: for we also are weake [a] in him, but wee shall liue with him by the power of God toward you. [5] Examine your selues, whether ye be in the faith: proue your owne selues. Know ye not your owne selues, how that Iesus Christ is in you, except ye be reprobates?

[6] But I trust that yee shall know that we are not reprobates. [7] Now I pray to God, that ye doe no euill, not that we should appeare approued, but that ye should doe that which is honest, though we be as reprobates. [8] For we can doe nothing against the trueth, but for the trueth. [9] For wee are glad when wee are weake, and ye are strong: and this also we wish, euen your perfection. [10] Therefore I write these things being absent, lest being present I should vse sharpnesse, according to the power which the Lord hath giuen me to edification, and not to destruction. [11] Finally, brethren, farewell: Bee perfect, be of good comfort, bee of one minde, liue in peace, and the God of loue and peace shalbe with you. [12] Greet one another with an holy kisse. 1. PAVL an Apostle (not of men, nether by man, but by Iesus Christe, and by God the Father which raysed him from death) [2] And all the brethren which are with me, vnto the Churches of Galatia:

[3] Grace be to you and peace from God the Father, and from our Lord Iesus Christ. [4] Which gaue him selfe for our synnes, to deliuer vs from this present euyl world according to the wyl of God our Father. [5] To whom be prayse for euer and euer, Amen. [6] I marueyle that ye are so sone tourned vnto another Gospel, forsaking him that had called you vnto the grace of Christ, [7] Seing there is no nother: but that there be some which trouble you, and intende to peruert the Gospel of Christ.

[8] But thogh that we, or an Angel from heauen, preache vnto you otherwaies, then that which we haue preached vntǫ you, holde him as accursed. [9] As we sayd before, so say I now agayne, Yf any man preache vnto you otherwaies, then that ye haue receaued, holde him accursed. [10] For now preache I mans doctrine, or Gods? other go I about to please men? for if I studied yet to please men, I were not the seruant of Christe. [11] I certifie you brethren, that the Gospel whych was preached

RHEIMS—1582.

1. PAVL an Apostle not of men, neither by man, but by IESVS Christ, and God the Father that raised him from the dead, [2] and al the brethren that are vvith me: to the churches of Galatia. of me, was not after the maner of men. [12] For nether receaued I it of man, nether was I taught it: but by the reuelation of Iesus Christe. [13] For ye haue heard of my conuersation in tyme paste, in the Iewishe religion, how that I persecuted the Churche of God extremely, and spoyled it. [14] And profited in the Lawe of the Iewes aboue many of my companions, which were of mine owne nation, and was a muche more feruent maynteyner of the traditions receaued of my father. [15] But when it pleased God, which had separated me from my mothers wombe, and called me by his grace, [16] To reueile his Sonne to me, that I should preache him among the Gentils: immediatly I communed not of the matter with fleshe and bloud: [17] Nether returned to Ierusalem to them which were Apostles before me: but went into Arabia, and came agayne vnto Damascus. [18] Then after thre yeres, I returned to Ierusalem to se Peter, and abode with him, fyftene dayes. [19] And no nother of the Apostles sawe I, saue Iames the Lordes brother. [20] The thinges which I write vnto you, beholde, I witnes before God, that I lye not. [21] After that, I went into the costes of Syria and Cilicia: [22] for I was vnknowen as touching my person vnto the Churches of Iewrie, which were in Christe. [23] But they heard only some say He which persecuted vs in tyme past, now preacheth the fayth, which before he destroyed. [24] And they glorified God for me.

2. THEN fourtene yeres after, I went vp agayne to Ierusalem with Barnabas, and toke wyth me Titus also. that it is not according to man. [12] For neither did I receiue it of man, nor learne it: but by the reuelation of IESVS Christ.

[13] For you haue heard my conuersation sometime in Iudaisme, that aboue measure I persecuted the Church of God, and expugned it, [14] and profited in Iudaisme aboue many of mine equales in my nation, being more aboundantly an emulator of the traditions of my fathers. [15] But vvhen it pleased him that separated me from my mothers vvombe, and called me by his grace, [16] to reueale his sonne in me, that I should euangelize him among the Gentils, incontinent I condescended not to flesh and bloud, [17] neither came I to Hierusalem to the Apostles my antecessors: but I vvent into Arabia, and againe I returned to Damascus.

[18] Then, after three yeres I came to Hierusalem to see Peter: and taried with him fiftene daies. [19] But other of the Apostles savv I none: sauing Iames the brother of our Lord. [20] And the things that I vvrite to you: behold before God, that I lie not. [21] After that, I came into the partes of Syria and Cilicia. [22] And I vvas vnknowen by sight to the churches of Ievvrie, that vvere in Christ: [23] but they had heard only, That he vvhich persecuted vs sometime, doth novv euangelize the faith vvhich sometime he expugned: [24] and in me they glorified God.

2. THEN after fourtene yeres I vvent vp againe to Hierusalem vvith Barnabas, taking Titus also vvith me. the Gospel which was preached of me, is not after man.

[12] For I neither receiued it of man, neither was I taught it, but by the reuelation of Iesus Christ. [13] For yee haue heard of my conuersation in time past, in the Iewes Religion, how that beyond measure I persecuted the Church of God, and wasted it: [14] And profited in the Iewes Religion, aboue many my [α] equals in mine owne nation, being more exceedingly zealous of the traditions of my fathers. [15] But when it pleased God, who separated me from my mothers wombe, and called mee by his grace, [16] To reueale his Sonne in me, that I might preach him among the heathen, immediatly I conferred not with flesh and blood: [17] Neither went I vp to Ierusalem, to them which were Apostles before me, but I went into Arabia, and returned againe vnto Damascus. [18] Then after three yeeres, I [β] went vp to Ierusalem to see Peter, and abode with him fifteene dayes.

[21] Afterwards I came into the regions of Syria and Cilicia, [22] And was vnknowen by face vnto the Churches of Iudea, which were in Christ. [23] But they had heard onely, that he which persecuted vs in times past, now preacheth the faith, which once hee destroyed. [24] And they glorified God in me.

2. THEN fourteene yeeres after, I went vp againe to Ierusalem with Barnabas, and tooke Titus with me also. [2] And I went vp by reuelation, and communicated vnto them that Gospel, which I preach among the Gentiles, but [γ] priuately to them which were of reputation, lest by any meanes I should runne, or had runne in vaine. [3] But neither Titus, who was with me, being a Greeke, was compelled to be circumcised: [4] And that because of the dedes of the lawe/ are vnder malediccion. For it is written: cursed is every man that continueth not in all thinges which are written in the boke of the lawe/ to fulfill them. 11 That no man is iustified by the lawe in the sight of God/ is evident. For the iuste shall live by fayth. 12 The lawe is not of fayth: but the man that fulfilleth the thinges contayned in the lawe (shall live in them.) 13 But Christ hath delivered vs from the curse of the lawe/ and was made a cursed for vs. For it is written: cursed is every one that hangeth on tree/ 14 that the blessynge of Abraham might come on the gentyls thorow Iesus Christ/ and that we might receave the promes of the sprete thorow fayth.

15 Brethren I will speake after the manner of men. Though it be but a mans testament/ yet no man despiseth it/ or addeth eny thinge ther to when it is once alowed. 16 To Abraham and his seed were the promises made. He seyth not/ in the seedes as in many: but in thy sede/ as in one/ which is Christ. 17 This I saye/ that the lawe which beganne afterwarde/ beyonde .iiii. But God gave it vnto Abraham by promes.

19 Wherfore then serveth the lawe? The lawe was added because of transgression (tyll the seed cam to which the promes was made) and it was ordeyned by angels in the honde of a mediator. 20 A mediator is not a mediator of one. But God is one. 21 Ys the lawe then agaynst the promes of God? God forbid. dedes of the lawe, are subiecte to the curse. For it is written cursed be euery one, that contynueth not in all thinges which are written in the boke of the lawe, to fulfyll them. 11 That no man is iustifyed by the lawe in the syght of God it is euident.

For the iuste shall lyue by fayth. 12 The lawe is not of fayth but the man that fulfilleth the thinges contayned in the lawe, shall lyue in them. 13 Christ hath delyuered vs from the curse of the lawe, in as moch as he was made acursed for vs. For it is wrytten: curssed is euery one, that hangeth on tree, 14 that the blessynge of Abraham myght come on the Gentyls thorow Iesus Christ, that we myght receaue the promes of the sprete thorow fayth.

15 Brethren, I speake after the maner of men. Though it be but a mans testament, yet no man despyseth it, or addeth eny thinge therto, yf it be alowed. 16 To Abraham and hys seed were the promyses made, He sayth not in the seedes, as many: but in thy sede, as of one, which is Christ. 17 Thys I saye, that the lawe which beganne afterwarde, beyonde foure .C. and thyrtye yeares, doth not disanull the testament, that was confermed afore of God vnto Christ ward, to make the promes of none effect 18 For yf the inheritaunce come of the lawe, it commeth not now of promes. But God gaue it vnto Abraham by promes.

19 Wherfore then serueth the lawe? The lawe was added because of transgression (tyll the seed came, to whom the promes was made) and it was ordeyned by Angels in the hande of a mediator. 20 A mediator is not a mediator of one. But God is one. 21 Is the lawe then agaynst the promes of God? God forbyd: For yf ther had bene a lawe geuen which coulde haue geuen lyfe: then no doute ryghtewesnes shuld come by the lawe. 22 But the scripture concluded all thynges vnder synne, that the promes by the fayth of Iesus Christ many as are vnder the dedes of the Lawe, are vnder the curse: for it is written: Cursed is euery man that continueth not in all thinges, which are written in the boke of the Lawe, to fulfil them. [11] And that no man is iustified by the Lawe in the sight of God, it is euident: For the iuste shal lyue by fayth. [12] And the Lawe is not of fayth: but, The man that shal fulfil those thinges, shal liue in them. [13] Now Christe hath redemed vs from the curse of the Lawe, when he was made accursed for vs: for it is written Cursed is euery one that hangeth on tree, [14] That the blessing of Abraham might come on the Gentils through Christe Iesus, and that we might receaue the promes of the Sprite through faith.

[15] Brethren, I speake after the maner of men, Thogh it be but a mans Couenant confirmed by autoritie, yet no man doth abrogate it, or addeth any thing therto. [16] To Abraham and his seed were the promises made. He sayth not, In the seedes, as of many: but, In thy sede, as in one, which is Christe. [17] And this I say, That the Lawe which began afterwarde, foure hundred and thyrty yeres, can not disanul the Couenant, that was confirmed afore of God in respect of Christe, to make the promes of none effect. [18] For if the inheritance come of the Lawe, it commeth not then of promes. but God gaue it vnto Abraham by promes. [19] Wherfore then serueth the Lawe? it was added because of transgressions, tyl the seede came to whych the promes was made and it was ordeyned by Angels in the hande of a Mediatour. [20] A Mediatour is not a Mediatour of one: but God is one. [21] Is the Lawe then against the promise of God? God forbyd: for, if there had bene a Lawe geuen which could haue geuen lyfe, then no doute rightuousnes should haue come by the Lawe.

[22] But the Scripture hath concluded all thynges vnder synne, that the promise by vvorkes of the Lavv, are vnder curse. For it is vvritten: Cursed be euery one that abideth not in al things that be vvritten in the booke of the Lavv, to do them. [11] But that in the Lavv no man is iustified vvith God, it is manifest, because The iust liueth by faith. [12] But the Lavv is not by faith: but, He that doeth those things, shal liue in them.

[13] Christ hath redeemed vs from the curse of the Lavv, being made a curse for vs (because it is vvritten, Cursed is euery one that hangeth on a tree) [14] that on the Gentiles the blessing of Abraham might be made in Christ IESVS: that vve may receiue the promisse of the Spirit by faith.

[15] Brethren (I speake according to man) yet a mans testament being confirmed no man despiseth, or further disposeth. [16] To Abraham vvere the promises said, and to his seede. He saith not, And to seedes, as in many: but as in one, And to thy seede, vvhich is Christ. [17] And this I say, the testament being confirmed of God, the Lavv vvhich vvas made after foure hundred and thirtie yeres, maketh not void to frustrate the promise. [18] For if the inheritance be of the Lavv, novv not of promise. But God gaue it to Abraham by promise. [19] Vvhy vvas the Lavv then? It vvas put for transgressions, vntil the seede came to vvhom he had promised: ordeined by Angels in the hand of a mediatour. [20] And a mediatour is not of one: but God is one.

[21] Vvas the Lavv then against the promises of God? God forbid. For if there had been a Lavv giuen that could iustifie, vndoubtedly iustice should be of the Lavv. [22] But the Scripture hath concluded al things vnder sinne: that the promise by the faith of IESVS Christ might be giuen

[11] But that no man is iustified by the Law in the sight of God, it is euident: for, The iust shall liue by faith. [12] And the Law is not faith: but the man that doeth them, shall liue in them. [13] Christ hath redeemed vs from the curse of the Law, being made a curse for vs: for it is written, Cursed is euery one that hangeth on tree: [14] That the blessing of Abraham might come on the Gentiles, through Iesus Christ: that wee might receiue the promise of the Spirit through faith.

[15] Brethren, I speake after the maner of men: though it bee but a mans [a] couenant, yet if it be confirmed, no man disanulleth, or addeth thereto. [16] Now to Abraham and his seed were the promises made. He saith not, And to seeds, as of many, but as of one, And to thy seed, which is Christ. [17] And this I say, that the Couenant that was confirmed before of God in Christ, the Law which was foure hundred and thirty yeeres after, cannot disanul, that it should make the promise of none effect. [18] For if the inheritance bee of the Law, it is no more of promise: but God gaue it to Abraham by promise. [19] Wherefore then serueth the Law? it was added because of transgressions, till the seed should come, to whom the promise was made, and it was ordeined by Angels in the hand of a Mediatour. [20] Now a mediatour is not a Mediatour of one, but God is one.

[21] Is the Law then against the promises of God? God forbid: for if there had bene a Law giuen which could haue giuen life, verily righteousnesse should haue bene by the Law. [22] But the Scripture hath concluded all vnder sinne, that the promise by faith of

AND I saye that the heyre as longe as he is a chylde, differth not from a servaunt, though he be Lorde of all, 2 but is vnder tuters and governers, vntill the tyme appoynted of the father. 3 Even so we, as longe as we were chyldren, were in bondage vnder the ordinaunces of the worlde. 4 But when the tyme was full come, God sent his sonne borne of a woman and made bonde vnto the lawe, 5 to redeme them which were vnder the lawe: that we thorow eleccion myght receave the inheritaunce that belongeth vnto the naturall sonnes. 6 Because ye are sonnes, God hath sent the sprete of his sonne in to oure hertes, which cryeth Abba father. 7 Wherfore now, thou art not a servaunt, but a sonne. the faith of Iesus Christ, should be geuen to them that beleue. [23] But before fayth came, we were kept and shut vp vnder the Lawe, vnto the faith which should afterward be reueiled. [24] Wherfore, the Lawe was our schole master to bringe vs to Christ, that we myght be made righteuous by faith. [25] But after that faith is come, now are we no lenger vnder a schole master. [26] For ye are all the sonnes of God, by fayth in Christ Iesus. [27] For all ye that are baptized vnto Christe, haue put on Christe. [28] There is nether Iewe nor Gentil: there is nether man nor woman: but ye are all one in Christe Iesus: [29] If ye be Christes, then are ye Abrahams seed, and heyres by promise.	to them that beleeue. [23] But before the faith came, vnder the Lavv we vvere kept shut vp, vnto that faith which vvas to be reuealed. [24] Therfore the Lavv vvas our Pedagogue in Christ: that vve may be iustified by faith. [25] But vvhen the faith came, novv vve are not vnder a pædagogue. [26] For you are al the children of God by faith in Christ Iesvs. [27] For as many of you as are baptized in Christ, haue put on Christ. [28] There is not Ievve nor Greeke, there is not bond nor free, there is not male nor femal. For al you are one in Christ Iesvs. [29] And if you be Christs, then are you the seede of Abraham, heires according to promise.	Iesus Christ might be giuen to them that beleeue. [23] But before faith came, wee were kept vnder the Law, shut vp vnto the faith, which should afterwards bee reuealed. [24] Wherefore the Law was our Schoolemaster to bring vs vnto Christ, that we might be iustified by faith. [25] But after that faith is come, we are no longer vnder a Schoolemaster. [26] For ye are all the children of God by faith in Christ Iesus. [27] For as many of you as haue bene baptized into Christ, haue put on Christ [28] There is neither Iew, nor Greeke, there is neither bond nor free, there is neither male nor female: for ye are all one in Christ Iesus. [29] And if ye be Christs, then are yee Abrahams seed, and heires according to the promise.
4. THEN I say, That the heyre as longe as he is a childe, differeth not from a seruant, thogh he be Lord of all, [2] But is vnder tuters and gouerners, vntyl the tyme appoynted of the father: [3] Euen so, we, as longe as we were children, were in bondage vnder the rudiments of the worlde. [4] But when the tyme was ful come, God sent out his Sonne made of a woman, and made bonde vnto the Lawe, [5] To redeme them which were vnder the Lawe: that we might receaue the adoption that belongeth vnto the natural sonnes. [6] Because ye are sonnes, God hath sent out the Sprite of his Sonne into your hearts, which crieth, Abba, that is, Father. [7] Wherfore, thou art no more a seruant, but a sonne: If thou be a sonne, thou art also the heyre of God through Christe. [8] Yea euen then, when ye knewe not God, ye dyd seruice vnto them, which by nature are not goddes. [9] But now seing ye know God, yea, rather are taught of God: how is it, that ye are tourned backwarde vnto impotent and beggerly ceremonies, wher vnto as from the begynnyng ye wil be in bondage backwardly? [10] Ye obserue dayes, and monethes, and times,	4. AND I say, as long as the heire is a litle one, he differeth nothing from a seruant, although he be lord of al, [2] but is vnder tutors and gouernours vntil the time limited of the father: [3] so vve also, vvhen vve vvere litle ones, vvere seruing vnder the elementes of the vvorld. [4] But vvhen the fulnes of time came, God sent his sonne made of a vvoman, made vnder the Lavv: [5] that he might redeeme them that vvere vnder the Lavv, that vve might receiue the adoption of sonnes. [6] And because you are sonnes, God hath sent the Spirit of his sonne into your hartes crying: Abba, Father. [7] Therfore novv he is not a seruant, but a sonne. And if a sonne, an heire also by God. [8] But then in deede not knowing God, you serued them that by nature are not Gods. [9] But novv vvhen you haue knovven God, or rather are knovven of God: hovv turne you againe to the vveake and poore elements, vvhich you vvil serue againe? [10] You obserue daies, and moneths, and	4. NOW I say, that the heire, as long as hee is a childe, differeth nothing from a seruant, though hee bee Lord of all, [2] But is vnder tutors and gouernours vntill the time appointed of the father. [3] Euen so we, when we were children, were in bondage vnder the [α] Elements of the world: [4] But when the fulnesse of the time was come, God sent foorth his Sonne made of a woman, made vnder the Law, [5] To redeeme them that were vnder the Law, that wee might receiue the adoption of sonnes. [6] And because ye are sonnes, God hath sent foorth the spirit of his Sonne into your hearts, crying Abba, Father. [7] Wherefore thou art no more a seruant, but a sonne; and if a sonne, then an heire of God through Christ. [8] Howbeit, then when ye know not God, ye did seruice vnto them which by nature are no Gods. [9] But now after that yee haue knowen God, or rather are knowen of God, how turne ye [β] againe to the weak and beggerly [α] Elements, whereunto ye desire againe to be in bondage? and yeres, 11 I am in feare of you, lest I haue bestowed on you labour in vayne. 12 Be ye as I: for I am as you: brethren I beseche you: ye haue not hurt me at all. 13 Ye knowe, how through infirmitie of the fleshe, I preached the Gospel vnto you at the fyrst. 14 And my tentation which was in my fleshe, ye despiced not, nether abhorred: but receaued me as an Angel of God: yea as Christ Iesus. 15 How great was the boasting of your felicitie then? for I beare you recorde, that yf it had bene possible, ye wolde haue plucked out your owne eyes, and haue geuen them to me. 16 Am I therfore become your ennemie, because I tel you the trueth?

17 They are gelous ouer you amysse, yea, they intende to exclude vs, that ye should altogether loue them. 18 But it is a good thing, to loue earnestly, so it be alwaies in a good thinge, and not only when I am present with you. 19 My lyttel chyldren of whom I trauayle in birth agayne, vntil Christe be imprinted in you. 20 And I wolde I were with you now, that I might change my voyce: for I stande in doute of you. 21 Tel me, ye that desire to be vnder the Lawe, do ye not heare the Lawe? 22 For it is wrytten, that Abraham had two sonnes: the one by a bonde mayde, the other by a fre woman.

23 Yea and he which was of the bonde woman, was borne after the fleshe: but he which was of the fre woman, was borne by promes. 24 By the which thinges another thing is ment: for these mothers are the two Testamentes, the one which is Agar of mounte Sina, which gendreth vnto bondage, 25 For Sina is a mountaine in Arabia, and Ierusalem which now is, answereth to it in like sort, for it is in bondage with her children. 26 But Ierusalem, which is aboue, is fre: which is the mother of vs all. 27 For it is written, Reioyce thou barren that bearest no chyldren, breake forth and crie, thou that trauailest not: for the desolate hath many times, and yeres. 11 I feare you, lest perhaps I haue laboured in vaine among you. 12 Be ye as I, because I also am as you: brethren, I beseeche you, you haue hurt me nothing. 13 And you knovv that by infirmitie of the flesh I euangelized to you heretofore: 14 and your tentation in my flesh you despised not, neither reiected, but as an Angel of God you receiued me, as Christ IESVS.

15 Vvhere is then your blessednes? for I giue you testimonie that if it could be done, you vvould haue plucked out your eies and haue giuen them to me. 16 Am I then become your enemie, telling you the truth? 17 They emulate you not vvel: but they vvould exclude you, that you might emulate them. 18 But do you emulate the good in good alvvaies: and not only vvhen I am present vvith you.

19 My litle children, vvhom I trauail vvithal againe, vntil Christ be formed in you. 20 And I vvould be vvith you now and chaunge my voice: because I am confounded in you. 21 Tel me you that vvil be vnder the Lavv, haue you not read the Lavv? 22 For it is vvritten that Abraham had tvvo sonnes: one of the bond-vvoman, and one of the free-vvoman. 23 But he that of the bond-vvoman, vvas borne according to the flesh: and he that of the free-vvoman, by the promisse.

24 vvhich things are said by an allegorie. For these are the tvvo testaments. The one from mount Sina, gendring vnto bondage: vvhich is Agar, (25 for Sina is a mountaine in Arabia, vvhich hath affinitie to that vvhich novv is Hierusalem) and serueth vvith her children. 26 But that Hierusalem vvhich is aboue, is free: vvhich is our mother. 27 For it is vvritten: Reioyce thou barren, that bearest not: breake forth and crie, that trauailest not: because many are the children of the desolate, more and yeeres. 11 I am afraide of you, lest I haue bestowed vpon you labour in vaine. 12 Brethren, I beseech you, be as I am; for I am as ye are, ye haue not iniured me at all. 13 Ye know how through infirmitie of the flesh, I preached the Gospel vnto you at the first. 14 And my temptation which was in my flesh ye despised not, nor reiected, but receiued mee as an Angel of God, euen as Christ Iesus. 15 [α] Where is then the blessednesse you spake of? for I beare you record, that if it had bene possible, yee would haue plucked out your owne eyes, and haue giuen them to me.

16 Am I therefore become your enemie, because I tell you the trueth? 17 They zelously affect you, but not well: yea, they would exclude [β] you, that you might affect them. 18 But it is good to be zealously affected alwayes in a good thing, and not onely when I am present with you. 19 My litle children, of whom I trauaile in birth againe, vntil Christ be formed in you: 20 I desire to bee present with you now, and to change my voyce, for I [γ] stand in doubt of you. 21 Tell me, ye that desire to be vnder the Law, doe ye not heare the Law? 22 For it is written, that Abraham had two sonnes, the one by a bondmayd, the other by a free woman. 23 But hee who was of the bondwoman, was borne after the flesh: but he of the freewoman, was by promise. 24 Which things are an Allegorie; for these are the two [δ] Couenants; the one from the mount Sinai, which gendereth to bondage, which is Agar. 25 For this Agar is mount Sinai in Arabia, and [ε] answereth to Ierusalem, which now is, and is in bondage with her children. 26 But Ierusalem which is aboue is free, which is the mother of vs all.

27 For it is written, Reioyce thou barren that bearest not, breake foorth and cry thou that trauailest not; for the desolate

PAVL an Apostle of Iesvs Christ by the vvil of God: to al the saincts that are at Ephesus: and to the faithful in Christ Iesvs.	1. PAUL an Apostle of Iesus Christ by the will of God, to the Saints which are at Ephesus, and to the faithfull in Christ Iesus.
2 Grace be to you, and peacë from God our Father, and from the Lord Iesus Christe.	2 Grace to you and peace from God our father, and our Lord Iesvs Christ.	2 Grace be to you, and peace from God our Father, and from the Lord Iesus Christ.
3 Blessed be God the Father of our Lord Iesus Christe, which hath blessed vs with all maner of spiritual blessinges in heauenly thinges in Christe,	3 Blessed be God and the Father of our Lord Iesvs Christ, vvhich hath blessed vs in al spiritual blessing, in cœlestials, in Christ:	3 Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Iesus Christ, who hath blessed vs with all spirituall blessings in heauenly [α] places in Christ:
4 According as he had chosen vs in him, before the foundations of the world were layd, that we should be holy, and without blame before him through loue.	4 as he chose vs in him before the constitution of the vvorld, that vve should be holy and immaculate in his sight in charitie.	4 According as he hath chosen vs in him, before the foundation of the world, that wee should bee holy, and without blame before him in loue:
5 Who dyd predestinate vs, to be adopted through Iesus Christe vnto him selfe according to the good pleasure of his wil.	5 Vvho hath predestinated vs vnto the adoption of sonnes, by Iesvs Christ, vnto him self: according to the purpose of his vvil:	5 Hauing predestinated vs vnto the adoption of children by Iesus Christ to himselfe, according to the good pleasure of his will:
6 To the praise of the glorie of his grace, where with he hath made vs accepted in the beloued.	6 vnto the praise of the glorie of his grace, vvherein he hath gratified vs in his beloued sonne.	6 To the praise of the glory of his grace, wherein he hath made vs accepted in the beloued:
7 By whome we haue redemption through his bloude, euen the forgeuenes of synnes, of his riche grace.	7 In vvhom vve haue redemption by his bloud (the remission of sinnes) according to the riches of his grace.	7 In whom wee haue redemption through his blood, the forgiuenesse of sinnes, according to the riches of his grace,
8 By the which grace he abonded toward vs moste plentifully in all wisdome and vnderstanding.	8 Vvhich hath superabounded in vs in all vvisedom and prudence,	8 Wherein hee hath abounded toward vs in all wisdome and prudence:
9 And hath opened vnto vs the mysterie of his wil, according to his fre beneuolence, which he had purposed in him.	9 that he might make knovven vnto vs the sacrament of his vvill, according to his good pleasure, vvhich he purposed in him self,	9 Hauing made knowen vnto vs the mysterie of his will, according to his good pleasure, which hee had purposed in himselfe,
10 That in the dispensation of the ful tyme he myght gather together agayne all thinges, bothe which are in heauen, and also which are in earth, euen in Christe:	10 in the dispensation of the fulnes of times, to perfit al things in Christ, that are in heauen and in earth, in him.	10 That in the dispensation of the fulnesse of times, he might gather together in one all things in Christ, both which are in [β] heauen, and which are on earth, euen in him:

wrath of God vpon the children of [α] disobedience.

[7] Bee not yee therefore partakers with them. [8] For yee were sometimes darkenesse, but now are yee light in the Lord: walke as children of light, [9] (For the fruit of the spirit is in all goodnes and righteousnesse and trueth.) [10] Prouing what is acceptable vnto the Lord: [11] And haue no fellowship with the vnfruitfull workes of darkenesse, but rather reproue them. [12] For it is a shame euen to speake of those things which are done of them in secret. [13] But all things that are [β] reprooued are made manifest by the light: for whatsoeuer doeth make manifest, is light.

[14] Wherefore hee sayth: Awake thou that sleepest, and arise from the dead, and Christ shall giue thee light. [15] See then that ye walke circumspectly, not as fooles, but as wise, [16] Redeeming the time, because the dayes are euill. [17] Wherefore be ye not vnwise, but vnderstanding what the will of the Lord is. [18] And be not drunke with wine, wherein is excesse: but bee filled with the Spirit: [19] Speaking to your selues, in Psalmes, and Hymnes, and Spirituall songs, singing and making melodie in your heart to the Lord, [20] Giuing thankes alwayes for all things vnto God, and the Father, in the Name of our Lord Iesus Christ, [21] Submitting your selues one to another in the feare of God.

[22] Wiues, submit your selues vnto your own husbands, as vnto the Lord. [23] For the husband is the head of the wife, euen as Christ is the head of the Church: and hee is the Sauiour of the body.

[24] Therefore as the Church is subiect vnto Christ, so let the wiues bee to their owne husbands in euery thing. [25] Husbands, loue your wiues, euen as Christ also loued the Church, and gaue himselfe for it: [26] That he might sanctifie and cleanse it with the washing of water, by the word, [27] That he might present it to himselfe a glorious Church, not hauing

[2] Grace to you and peace from God our father, and our Lord Iesvs Christ.	1. PAUL and Timotheus the seruants of Iesus Christ, to all the Saints in Christ Iesus, which are at Philippi, with the Bishops and Deacons: [2] Grace be vnto you, and peace, from God our father, and from the Lord Iesus Christ. [3] I thanke my God vpon euery [a] remembrance of you, [4] Alwayes in euery prayer of mine for you all making request, with ioy. [5] For your felowship in the Gospel from the first day vntill now; [6] Being confident of this very thing, that he which hath begun a good work in you, [β] will performe it vntil the day of Iesus Christ. [7] Euen as it is meete for mee to thinke this of you all, because [γ] I haue you in my heart, in as much as both in my bonds, and in the defence and confirmation of the Gospel, ye all are [δ] partakers of my grace. [8] For God is my record, how greatly I long after you all, in the bowels of Iesus Christ.
[4] (Alwayes in all my prayers for all you, praying with gladnes) [5] Because of the fellowship which ye haue in the Gospel, from the first day vnto now. [6] And am suerly certified of thys, that he which began a good worke in you, shal go forth wyth it vntyl the day of Iesus Christ. [7] As it becometh me so to iudge of you all, because I beare in perfect remembrance that both in my bandes, and also in my defence, and confirmation of the Gospel, you all were partakers of my grace. [11] Fylled wyth the fruites of ryghtuousnes, which come by Iesus Christe vnto the glorie and praise of God. [12] I would ye vnderstode brethren, that the things which haue happened vnto me, are tourned to the great furtheryng of the Gospel. [13] So that my bandes in Christ, are famous throughout all the Iudgement hall, and in all other places. [14] Insomuche that many of the brethren in the Lord are boldned through my bandes, and dare more frankely speake the worde. [15] Some there are which preache Christe of enuie and stryfe, and some also of good wyl.

[16] The one parte preacheth Christe of stryfe and not purely, supposing to adde more affliction to my bandes. [17] The other parte of loue, knowing that I am set to defende the Gospel. [18] What then? So that Christ be preached all maner wayes, whether it be vnder a pretence, or syncerely: I therin ioye, yea, and wyl ioye. [19] For I knowe that this shal tourne to my saluation, through your prayer, and by the helpe of the Sprite of Iesus Christe.

[20] As I hartely loke for, and hope, that in nothing I shalbe ashamed: but that wyth all confidence, as all wayes in tymes paste, euen so now Christe shall be magnified in my body, whether it be through lyfe, or els death. [21] For Christe is to me both in life, and in death aduantage.

[22] And whether to lyue in the fleshe, were profitable for me, and what to chose I wote not. [23] For I am greatly in doubte on bothe sydes: desiring to be lowsed and to be wyth Christe, which thyng is beste of all. [24] Neuerthelesse, to abyde in the fleshe is more neadful for you. [25] And thys am I sure of, that I shal abyde, and wyth you all continue, for the furtherance and ioy of your faith. [12] And I vvil haue you knovv brethren, that the things about me are come to the more furtherance of the Gospel: [13] so that my bandes vvere made manifest in Christ in al the court, and in al the rest, [14] that many of our brethren in our Lord, hauing confidence in my bandes, vvere bold more aboundantly vvithout feare to speake the vvord of God. [15] Some in deede euen for enuie and contention: but some also for good vvil preache Christ. [16] Some of charitie: knovving that I am set vnto the defense of the Gospel. So that by al meanes, vvhether by occasion, or by truth, Christ be preached: in this also I reioyce, yea and vvil reioyce.

[19] For I knovv that this shal fall out to me vnto saluation by your praier and the subministration of the Spirit of IESVS Christ, [20] according to my expectation and hope, because in nothing shal I be confounded, but in al confidence as alvvaies, novv also shal Christ be magnified in my body, vvhether it be by life, or by death. And I am straitened of the tvvo: hauing desire to be dissolued and to be vvith Christ, a thing much more better. [24] but to abide in the flesh, necessarie for you. [25] And trusting this, I know that I shal abide and continue vvith you al, vnto your furtherance and ioy of the faith: [26] that your gratulation may abound in Christ IESVS in me, by my comming againe to you.

[16] The one preach Christ of contention, not sincerely, supposing to adde affliction to my bonds: [17] But the other of loue, knowing that I am set for the defence of the Gospel. [18] What then? Notwithstanding euery way, whether in pretence, or in trueth: Christ is preached, and I therein doe reioyce, yea, and will reioyce.

[19] For I know that this shall turne to my saluation through your prayer, and the supplie of the spirit of Iesus Christ, [20] According to my earnest expectation, and my hope, that in nothing I shalbe ashamed: but that with all boldnes, as alwayes, so now also Christ shal be magnified in my body, whether it be by life or by death. [21] For to me to liue is Christ, and to die is gaine. [22] But if I liue in the flesh, this is the fruit of my labour: yet what I shal chuse, I wote not. [23] For I am in a strait betwixt two, hauing a desire to depart, and to bee with Christ, wich is farre better. [24] Neuertheles, to abide in the flesh, is more needfull for you. [25] And hauing this confidence, I know that I shall abide and continue with you all, for your furtherance and ioy of faith, [26] That your reioycing may bee more abundant in Iesus Christ for me, by my comming to you againe.

[19] I trust in the Lord Iesus, to sende Timotheus shortly vnto you, that I also may be of good comforte, when I knowe what case ye stande in: [20] For I haue no man that is so like mynded, whych wyth so pure affection careth for your matters. [21] For all other seke theyr owne, and not that whych is Iesus Christes. [22] Also ye knowe the profe of hym, how that as a sonne with the father, so wyth me bestowed he his labour in the Gospel. [23] Hym therfore I hope to send assone as I knowe how it wyl go wyth me. [24] And trust in the Lord, that I also my selfe shal comme shortly.

[25] But I supposed it necessary to sende my brother Epaphroditus vnto you my companion in labour, and felow souldier, your messanger, and he that ministred vnto me such things as I wanted. [26] For he longed after you, and was ful of heauines, because that ye had heard say, that he had bene sycke. [27] And no doute he was sycke, and that nye vnto death: but God had mercie on him: not on him only, but on me also: lest I sholde haue sorow vpon sorow. [28] I sent him therfore the me only, but much more novv in my absence, vvith feare and trembling vvorke your saluation. [13] For it is God that vvorketh in you both to vvil and to accomplish, according to his good vvil. [14] And doe ye al things vvithout murmurings and staggerings: [15] that you may be vvithout blame, and the simple children of God, vvithout reprehension in the middes of a crooked and peruerse generation. among vvhom you shine as lightes in the vvorld: [16] conteining the vvord of life to my glorie in the daie of Christ, because I haue not runne in vaine, nor in vaine laboured. [17] But and if I be immolated, vpon the sacrifice and seruice of your faith, I reioyce and congratulate vvith you al. [18] And the self same thing doe you also reioyce, and congratulate vvith me.

[19] And I hope in our Lord IESVS, to send Timothee vnto you quickly, that I also may be of good comfort, when I knovv the things pertaining to you. [20] For I haue no man so of one minde that vvith sincere affection is careful for you. [21] For al seeke the things that are their ovvne: not the things that are IESVS Christs. [22] And knovv ye an experiment of him, that as a sonne the father, so hath he serued vvith me in the Gospel. [23] This man therfore I hope to send vnto you, immediatly as I shal see the things that concerne me. [24] And I trust in our Lord that my self also shal come to you quickly.

[25] But I haue thought it necessarie to send to you Epaphroditus my brother and coadiutor and fellovv souldiar, but your Apostle, and minister of my necessitie. [26] Because in deede he had a desire tovvard you al: and vvas pensife, for that you had heard that he vvas sicke. [27] For in deede he vvas sicke euen to death: but God had mercie on him: and not only on him, but on me also, lest I should haue sorovv vpon sorovv. [28] Therfore I sent him the more spedily: that seeing now much more in my absence; worke out your owne saluation with feare and trembling.

[13] For it is God which worketh in you, both to will and to doe, of his good pleasure. [14] Doe all things without murmurings, and disputings: [15] That yee may be blamelesse and [α] harmelesse, the sonnes of God, without rebuke, in the middes of a crooked and peruerse nation, among whom [β] ye shine as lights in the world: [16] Holding foorth the worde of life, that I may reioyce in the day of Christ, that I haue not runne in vaine, neither laboured in vaine. [17] Yea, and if I bee [γ] offered vpon the sacrifice and seruice of your faith, I ioy, and reioyce with you all. [18] For the same cause also do ye ioy, and reioyce with me.

[19] [δ] But I trust in the Lord Iesus, to send Timotheus shortly vnto you, that I also may bee of good comfort, when I know your state. [20] For I haue no man [ε] like minded, who will naturally care for your state. [21] For all seeke their owne, not the things which are Iesus Christs. [22] But yee know the proofe of him, That as a sonne with the father, hee hath serued with me, in the Gospel. [23] Him therefore I hope to send presently, so soone as I shal see how it wil goe with mee. [24] But I trust in the Lord, that I also my selfe shall come shortly. [25] Yet I supposed it necessary, to send to you Epaphroditus my brother and companion in labour, and fellowe souldier, but your messenger, and hee that ministred to my wants. [26] For hee longed after you all, and was full of heauinesse, because that yee had heard that he had been sicke.

[27] For indeed he was sicke nigh vnto death, but God had mercie on him: and not on him onely, but on mee also, lest I should haue sorow vpon sorow. [28] I sent him therefore the more carefully, that

3. MOREOUER, my brethren reioyce in the Lord. It greueth me not to wryte the same thyngs to you: and for you it is a sure thing. [2] Beware of dogges, beware of euil workers, beware of the concision. [3] For we are Circumcision, which worshyp God in the spirite, and reioyce in Christ Iesus, and haue no confidence in the fleshe: [4] Thoghe I haue wherof I might reioyce also in the fleshe. If any other man thinketh that he hath wherof he might trust in the fleshe: muche more I. [5] Circumcised the eyght day, of the kinred of Israel, of the tribe of Beniamin, an Hebrue of the Hebrues, by profession, a Pharisei. [6] And as concerning feruentnes, I persecuted the Churche, and as touching the rightuousnes which is in the Lawe, I was vnrebukable. [7] But the thinges that were vantage vnto me, the same I counted losse for Christes sake,	3. FROM hence forth my brethren, reioyce in our Lord. To vvrite the same things vnto you, to me surely it is not tedious, and to you it is necessarie. [2] See the dogges, see the euil vvorkers, see the concision. [3] For vve are the circumcision, vvhich in spirit serue God: and vve glorie in Christ IESVS, and not hauing confidence in the flesh, [4] albeit I also haue confidence in the flesh. If any other man seeme to haue confidence in the flesh, I more, [5] circumcised the eight day, of the stocke of Israël, of the tribe of Beniamin, an Hebrevv of Hebrevves: according to the Lavv, a Pharisee: [6] according to emulation, persecuting the Church of God: according to the iustice that is in the Lavv, conuersing vvithout blame. [7] But the things that vvere gaines to me, those haue I esteemed for Christ, detriments.	3. FINALLY, my brethren, reioyce in the Lorde. To write the same things to you, to me indeed is not grieuous: but for you it is safe. [2] Beware of dogs, beware of euill workers: beware of the concision. [3] For we are the circumcision, which worship God in the spirit, and reioyce in Christ Iesus, and haue no confidence in the flesh. [4] Though I might also haue confidence in the flesh. If any other man thinketh that hee hath whereof hee might trust in the flesh, I more. [5] Circumcised the eight day, of the stocke of Israel, of the tribe of Beniamin, an Hebrew of the Hebrewes, as touching the Law, a Pharise: [6] Concerning zeale, persecuting the Church: touching the righteousnesse which is in the Law, blamelesse. [7] But what things were gaine to me, those I counted losse for Christ. [8] Yea doubtlesse, and I count all things but losse, for the excellencie of the knowledge of Christ Iesus my Lord: for whom I haue suffered the losse of all things, and doe count them but dung, that I may win Christ, [9] And be found in him, not hauing mine owne righteousnesse, which is of the Law, but that which is through the faith of Christ, the righteousnesse which is of God by faith:
[8] Yea douteles I thinke all thinges but losse for that excellent knowledges sake of Christ Iesus my Lord: for whome I haue counted all things losse, and do iudge them but donge, that I might winne Christ: [9] And might be founde in him, that is, not hauyng myne owne rightuousnes, which is of the Lawe, but that which is through the faith of Christ, I meane, the rightuousnes which commeth of God through faith, [10] That I may knowe him, and the vertue of his resurrection, and the fellowship of his afflictions, and be made conformable vnto his deathe: [11] If by any meanes I myght attayne vnto the resurrection of the dead.	[8] Yea but I esteeme al things to be detriment for the passing knovvledge of IESVS Christ my Lord: for vvhom I haue made al things as detriment, and do esteeme them as dung, that I may gaine Christ: [9] and may be found in him not hauing my iustice vvhich is of the Lavv, but that vvhich is of the faith of Christ, vvhich is of God iustice in faith: [10] to knovv him, and the vertue of his resurrection, and the societie of his passions, configured to his death, [11] if by any meanes I may come to the resurrection vvhich is from the dead. [12] Not that novv I haue receiued, or novv am perfect: but I pursue, if I may comprehend vvherein	[10] That I may know him, and the power of his resurrection, and the fellowship of his sufferings, being made conformable vnto his death. [11] If by any meanes I might attaine vnto the resurrection of the dead. [12] Not as though I had already attained, either were already perfect: but I follow but I followe, if that I may comprehende that for whose sake I am comprehended of Christ Iesus. [13] Brethren, I counte not my selfe, that I haue atteyned to the marke: but one thing I do, I forget that which is behynde, and endeuour my selfe vnto that which is before, [14] And follow hard vnto that marke appointed, to obtayne the rewarde of the hye calling of God in Christe Iesus. [15] Let vs therfore as many as be perfect, be thus wyse mynded: and if ye be other wyse mynded, God shal open euen the same vnto you. [16] Neuerthelesse, in that wherunto we are come, let vs procede by one rule, that we may be affectionned a like.

[17] Brethren be folowers of me, and loke on them which walke euen so, as ye haue vs for an ensample. [18] For many walke, of whome I haue told you often, and now tel you weping, that they are the ennemies of the Crosse of Christ, [19] Whose ende is damnation, whose God is their bely, and whose glorie is to their shame, which are worldely mynded. [20] But our conuersation is in heauen, from whence also we loke for the Sauiour, euen the Lord Iesus Christ, [21] Who shal change our vile bodie, that it may be fashioned lyke vnto his glorious body, accordyng to the working, wherby he is able to subdue all thinges vnto him selfe.

I am also comprehended of Christ Iesvs. [13] Brethren, I do not account that I haue comprehended. Yet one thing: forgetting the things that are behinde, but stretching forth my self to those that are before, [14] I pursue to the marke, to the price of the supernal vocation of God in Christ Iesvs. [15] Let vs therfore as many as are perfect, be thus minded: and if you be any othervvise minded, this also God hath reuealed to you, [16] Neuerthelesse vvherevnto we are come, that vve be of the same minde, let vs continue in the same rule.

[17] Be folovvers of me brethren: and obserue them that vvalke so as you haue our forme. [18] For many vvalke vvhom often I told you of (and novv vveeping also I tel you) the enemies of the crosse of Christ: [19] vvhose end is destruction: vvhose God, is the belly: and their glorie in their confusion, vvhich minde vvorldly things. [20] But our conuersation is in heauen? vvhence also vve expect the Sauiour, our Lord Iesvs Christ, [21] vvho vvil reforme the body of our humilitie, configured to the body of his glorie, according to the operation vvhereby also he is able to subdue al things to him self.

4. THERFORE, my deerest brethren and most desired, my ioy and my crovvne: so stand in our Lord, my deerest. [2] Euchodia' I desire and Syntyché I beseeche to be of one minde in our Lord. after, if that I may apprehend that for which also I am apprehended of Christ Iesus. [13] Brethren, I count not my selfe to haue apprehended: but this one thing I doe, forgetting those things which are behind, and reaching forth vnto those things which are before, [14] I presse toward the marke, for the price of the high calling of God in Christ Iesus. [15] Let vs therefore as many as bee perfect, bee thus minded: and if in any thing ye be otherwise minded, God shal reueale euen this vnto you. [16] Neuerthelesse, whereto we haue already attained, let vs walke by the same rule, let vs mind the same thing. [17] Brethren, be followers together of me, and marke them which walke so, as ye haue vs for an ensample.

[18] (For many walke, of whome I haue told you often, and now tell you euen weeping, that they are the enemies of the Crosse of Christ: [19] Whose end is destruction, whose God is their belly, and whose glory is in their shame, who minde earthly things.) 4. THEREFORE, my brethren, dearely beloued and longed for, my ioy and crowne, so stand fast in the Lord, my dearely beloued. [2] I beseech Euodias, and beseech Syntiche, that they be of the same mind in the Lord. [3] And I entreat thee also, true yokefellow, helpe those women which laboured with mee in the Gospel, with Clement also, and with other my felow labourers, whose names are in the booke of life. vnto God, spred abrode in all quarters, that it nedeth not vs to speake any thynge at all.	vvhich is to God vvard, is proceded, so that it is not necessarie for vs to speake any thing.	Godward is spred abroad, so that we need not to speak any thing.
9 For they them selues shewe of you what maner of entring in, we had vnto you, and how ye tourned to God from idoles, for to serue the lyuing and true God. 10 And for to loke for his Sonne from heauen, whome he raysed from death, I meane Iesus which deliuereth vs from the wrath to come.	9 For they them selues report of vs vvhat maner of entring vve had to you: and how you are turned to God from Idols, to serue the liuing and true God, 10 and to expect his Sonne from heauen (vvhom he raised vp from the dead) Iesvs, vvho hath deliuered vs from the vvrath to come.	9 For they themselues shew of vs, what maner of entring in we had vnto you, and how ye returned to God from idols, to serue the liuing and true God, 10 And to waite for his sonne from heauen, whom he raised from the dead, euen Iesus which deliuered vs from the wrath to come.
2. FOR ye your selues knowe brethren, that our entrance in vnto you, was not in vayne. 2 But euen after that we had suffered before, and were shamfully entreated at Philippi (as ye knowe) then were we bolde in our God, to speake vnto you the Gospel of God, wyth muche stryuyng. 3 For our exhortation was not to vse deceite, nor yet wickednes, nether was it with gyle. 4 But as we were alowed of God, that the Gospel should be committed vnto vs: euen so we speake, not as they that please men, but God which tryeth our heartes.	2. FOR your selues knovv, brethren, our entrance vnto you, that it vvas not vaine: 2 but hauing suffered before and been abused vvith contumelies (as you knovv) at Philippi, vve had confidence in our God, to speake vnto you the Gospel of God in much carefulnes. 3 For our exhortation vvas not of errour, not of vncleannesse, nor in deceite: 4 but as vve vvere approued of God that the Gospel should be committed to vs, so vve speake: not as pleasing men, but God, vvho proueth our hartes.	2. FOR your selues, brethren, know our entrance in vnto you, that it was not in vaine. 2 But euen after that wee had suffered before, and were shamefully entreated, as ye know, at Philippi, we were bold in our God to speake vnto you the Gospel of God, with much contention. 3 For our exhortation was not of deceit, nor of vncleannesse, nor in guile: 4 But as we were allowed of God to be put in trust with the Gospel, euen so wee speake, not as pleasing men, but God, which trieth our hearts.
5 Nether yet dyd we euer vse flatteryng wordes, as ye knowe, nether dyd we any thing in coulored couetousnes, God is recorde. 6 Nether soght we prayse of men, nether of you, nor yet of any other: When we myghte haue bene chargeable, as the Apostles of Christe: 7 but we were gentil among you, euen as a norsse cherissheth her chyldren. 8 Thus, being affectioned towarde you, our good wil was to haue dealte vnto you, not the Gospel of God only: but also our owne soules, because ye were deare vnto vs. 9 For ye remember brethren, our labour, and trauayle: for we laboured day and nyght, because we would not be chargeable vnto any of you, and preached vnto you the Gospel of God.	9 For you are mindeful, brethren, of our labour and toile. day and night vvorking, lest vve should charge any of you, vve preached among you the Gospel of God.	5 For neither at any time vsed wee flattering words, as yee knowe, nor a cloke of couetousnesse, God is witnesse: 6 Nor of men sought we glory, neither of you, nor yet of others, when we might haue [a]been burdensome, as the Apostles of Christ. 7 But we were gentle among you, euen as a nurse cherisheth her children: 8 So being affectionately desirous of you, we were willing to haue imparted vnto you, not the Gospel of God only, but also our owne soules, because yee were deare vnto vs. 9 For yee remember, brethren, our labour and trauaile: for labouring night and day, because wee would not bee chargeable vnto any of you, wee preached vnto you the Gospel of God.
10 Ye are wytnesses, and so is God, how holyly, and iustly, and vnblamably, we behaued our selues amonge you that beleue. 11 As ye know how that we exhorted,	10 You are vvitnesses and God, hovv holily and iustly and vvithout blame, vve haue been to you that did beleeue. 11 as you knovv in vvhat maner we desiring	10 Yee are witnesses, and God also, how holily, and iustly, and vnblameably we behaued our selues among you that beleeue. 11 As you know, how wee exhorted and should know, how to kepe his vessel in holynes and honour.	to possesse his vessel in sanctification and honour:	vessel in sanctification and honour:

5 And not in the luste of concupiscence, as do the Gentils which knowe not God.	5 not in the passion of lust, as also the Gentiles that knovv not God,	5 Not in the lust of concupiscence, euen as the Gentiles which know not God:
6 That no man oppresse and defraude his brother in any matter: for the Lord is a venger of all suche thinges, as we tolde you before tyme and testified.	6 and that no man ouergoe, nor circumuent his brother in businesse: because our Lord is reuenger of al these things, as vve haue foretold you, and haue testified.	6 That no man goe beyond and [α] defraud his brother [β] in any matter, because that the Lord is the auenger of all such; as we also haue forewarned you, and testified.
7 For God hath not called vs vnto vnclennes, but vnto holynes.	7 For God hath not called vs into vncleannesse: but into sanctification.	7 For God hath not called vs vnto vncleannesse, but vnto holinesse.
8 He therfore that despiceth these things, despiceth not man, but God who hath geuen you his holy Sprite.	8 Therfore he that despiseth these things, despiseth not man but God, vvho also hath giuen his holy Spirit in vs.	8 He therefore that [γ] despiseth, despiseth not man, but God, who hath also giuen vnto vs his holy Spirit.
9 But as touching brotherly loue, ye nede not that I write vnto you: for ye are taught of God to loue one another.	9 But concerning the charitie of the fraternitie, vve haue no neede to vvrite to you: for your selues haue learned of God to loue one an other.	9 But as touching brotherly loue, ye need not that I write vnto you: for yee your selues are taught of God to loue one another.
10 Yea, and that thyng verely ye do vnto all the brethren, which are throughout all Macedonia: we beseche you brethren, that ye excel more and more.	10 Yea and you doe it tovvard al the brethren in al Macedonia. But vve desire you brethren, that you abound more:	10 And in deed yee do it towards all the brethren, which are in all Macedonia: but we beseech you, brethren, that ye increase more and more:
11 And that ye studie to be quiet, and to medle wyth your owne busines, and to worke with your owne handes, as we commanded you.	11 and that you employ your indeuour to be quiet, and that you doe your ovvne businesse, and vvorke vvith your ovvne handes, as we haue commaunded you:	11 And that ye studie to be quiet, and to doe your owne businesse, and to worke with your owne hands, (as wee commanded you:)
12 That ye behaue your selues honestly toward them that are without, and that nothing be lackyng vnto you.	12 and that you vvalke honestly tovvard them that are vvithout: and neede nothing of any mans.	12 That ye may walke honestly toward them that are without, and that ye may haue lacke [δ] of nothing.
13 I woulde not brethren, haue you ignorant concerning them which are fallen a slepe, that ye sorowe not as other do which haue no hope.	13 And vve vvil not haue you ignorant, brethren, concerning them that sleepe, that you be not sorovvful, as also others that haue no hope.	13 But I would not haue you to be ignorant, brethren, concerning them which are asleepe, that ye sorrow not, euen as others which haue no hope.
14 For if we beleue that Iesus dyed, and rose agayne: euen so them also whych slepe in Iesus, wil God bring with him.	14 For if vve beleeue that IESVS died and rose againe, so also God them that haue slept by IESVS vvil bring vvith him.	14 For if we beleeue that Iesus died, and rose againe: euen so them also which sleepe in Iesus, will God bring with him.
15 For this say we vnto you in the words of the Lord, that we which lyue, and are remayning, in the comming of the Lord, shal not preuent them which slepe.	15 For this vve say to you in the vvord of our Lord, that vve vvhich liue, vvhich are remaining in the aduent of our Lord, shal not preuent them that haue slept.	15 For this we say vnto you by the word of the Lord, That we which are aliue and remaine vnto the comming of the Lord, shall not preuent them which are asleepe.
16 For the Lord him selfe shal descend from heauen with a showte, and the voyce of the Archangel and trompet of God: and the dead in Christ shal rise firste:	16 For our Lord him self in commaundement and in the voice of an Archangel and in the trompet of God vvil descend from heauen: and the dead that are in Christ, shal rise againe first.	16 For the Lord himselfe shall descend from heauen with a shout, with the voyce of the Archangel, and with the trumpe of God: and the dead in Christ shall rise first.
17 Then shal we which liue and remaine be caught vp with them also in the cloudes, to mete the Lord in the ayer: and so shal we euer be with the Lord.	17 Then vve that liue, that are left, vvithal shal be taken vp vvith them in the cloudes to meete Christ, into the aire, and so alvvaies vve shal be vvith our Lord.	17 Then we which are aliue, and remaine, shalbe caught vp together with them in the clouds, to meet the Lord in the aire: and so shall wee euer be with the Lord.

5. OF the tymes and seasons brethren ye have no nede that I write vnto you: [2] for ye youre selves knowe parfectly, that the daye of the Lorde shall come even as a thefe in the nyght. [3] When they shall saye peace and no daunger, than commeth on the soden destruccion, as the travalynge of a woman with childe, and they shall not scape. [4] But ye brethren are not in darcknes, that that daye shuld come on you as it were a thefe. [5] Ye are all the children of light, and the children of the daye. We are not of the nyght nether of darcknes.

[6] Therfore let vs not slepe as do other: but let vs watch and be sober. [7] For they that slepe slepe in the nyght: and they that be dronken, are dronken in the nyght. [8] But let vs which are of the daye, be sober, armed with the brest plate of fayth and love, and with hope of salvacion as an helmet. [9] For god hath not apoynted vs vnto wrath: but to obtayne salvacion by the meanes of oure lorde Iesu Christ [10] which died for vs: that whether we wake or slepe, we shuld lyve togedder with him.

[11] Wherfore comforte youre selves togedder, and edifie one another, even as ye do.

[12] We beseche you brethren, that ye knowe them which laboure amonge you and have the oversight of you in the Lorde and geve you exhortacion, [13] that ye have them the more in love, for their workes sake, and be at peace with them. [14] We desyre you brethren, warne them that are vnruly, comforte the feble mynded, for beare the weake, have continuall pacience towarde all men. [15] Se that none recompence evill for evyll vnto eny man: but ever folowe that which is good, both amonge youre selves, and to all men. [16] Reioyce ever. [17] Praye continually. [18] In all thinges geve thankes. For this is the wyll of God in Christ Iesu towarde you.

CRANMER—1539.

5. OF the tymes and seasons (brethren) it is no nede that I wryte vnto you: [2] for ye youre selues know perfectly, that the daye of the Lorde shall come, euen as a thefe in the nyght. [3] For when they shall saye, peace and all thynges are safe, then shall soden destruccyon come vpon them (as sorow commeth vpon a woman traualynge with chylde) and they shall not scape. [4] But ye brethren are not in darcknes, that that daye shuld come on you as a thefe.

[5] Ye are all the chyldren of lyght, and the chyldren of the daye. We are not of the nyght nether of darknes.

[6] Therfore let vs not slepe as do other: but let vs watch, and be sober. [7] For they that slepe, slepe in the night: and they that be droncken, are droncken in the nyght. [8] But let vs whych are of the daye, be sober armed wyth the brest plate of fayth and loue, and with hope of saluacyon for an helmet. [9] For God hath not apoynted vs to prouoke wrath vnto oure selues, but to obtayne saluacyon by the meanes of oure Lorde Iesu Christ [10] which dyed for vs: that whether we wake or slepe, we shulde lyue together with him.

[11] Wherfore, comforte your selues together, and edifye euery one another, euen as ye do.

[12] We beseche you brethren, that ye knowe them which laboure amonge you, and haue the ouersyght of you in the Lorde, and geue you exhortacyon, [13] that ye haue them in hye reputacyon thorow loue, for their workes sake, and be at peace with them.

[14] We desyre you (brethren) warne them that are vnruly, comforte the feble mynded, lyft vp the weake, be pacient towarde all men. [15] Se that none recompence euyll for euyll vnto eny man: but euer folow that whych is good, both amonge youre selues, and to all men. [16] Reioyce euer. [17] Praye contynually. [18] In all thynges geue thankes. For thys is the wyll of God thorow Christ Iesu towarde you.

5. BVT of the tymes and seasons brethren, ye haue no nede that I wryte vnto you. 2 For ye your selues knowe perfectly, that the day of the Lord shal come, euen as a thefe in the nyght. 3 For when they shal say, Peace, and all things safe, then commeth on them soden destruction, as the trauayling of a woman with childe, and they shal not escape. 4 But ye brethren are not in darkenesse, that that day should come on you as it were a thefe.

5 Ye are all the children of light, and the chyldren of the day: we are not of the nyght nether of darknes. 6 Therfore let vs not slepe as do other, but let vs watche and be sober. 7 For they that slepe, slepe in the night, and they that be droncken, are droncken in the nyght. 8 But let vs whych are of the day, be sober, armed with the breste plate of fayth and loue, and wyth hope of saluation as an helmet.

9 For God hath not appoynted vs vnto wrath: but to obtayne saluation by the meanes of our Lord Iesus Christ. 10 Which dyed for vs, that whether we wake or slepe, we shoulde lyue together wyth him. 11 Wherfore exhorte one another, and edifie one another, euen as ye do.

12 We beseche you brethren, that ye knowe them, which labour among you, and haue the ouersyght of you in the Lord, and geue you exhortation. 13 That ye haue them the more in loue for their workes sake, and be at peace amonge your selues. 14 We desire you brethren, warne them that are vnruly, comforte the feble mynded, forbeare the weake, be patiente toward all men. 15 Se that none recompence euyl for euyl vnto any man: but euer folowe beneuolence, both amonge your selues, and to all men.

16 Reioyce euer. 17 Pray continually. 18 In all thynges geue thankes: for thys is the wyl of God in Christ Iesus toward you.

RHEIMS—1582.

5. AND of the times and momentes, brethren, you neede not that vve vvrite to you. 2 For your selues knovv perfectly that the day of our Lord shal so come, as a theefe in the night. 3 For vvhen they shal say, peace and securitie: then shal sodaine destruction come vpon them, as the paines to her that is vvith childe, and they shal not escape. 4 But you brethren are not in darknesse: that the same day may as a theefe ouertake you.

5 For al you are the children of light, and children of the day: vve are not of the night nor of darknesse, 6 Therfore let vs not sleepe as also others: but let vs vvatch and be sober. 7 For they that sleepe, sleepe in the night: and they that be drunke, be drunke in the night. 8 But vve that are of the day, are sober, hauing on the breast-plate of faith and charitie, and a helmet, the hope of saluation.

9 For God hath not appointed vs vnto vvrath, but vnto the purchasing of saluation by our Lord IESVS Christ, 10 vvho died for vs: that vvhether vve vvatch, or sleepe, vve may liue together vvith him. 11 For the vvhich cause comfort one an other: and edifie one an other, as also you doe.

12 And vve beseeche you brethren, that you vvil knovv them that labour among you, and that gouerne you in our Lord, and admonish you: 13 that you haue them more aboudantly in charitie for their vvorke. haue peace vvith them. 14 And vve beseeche you brethren, admonish the vnquiet, comfort the vveake-minded, beare vp the vveake, be patient to al. 15 See that none render euil for euil to any man: but alvvaies that vvhich is good pursue tovvards eche other, and tovvards al. 16 Alvvaies reioyce. 17 Pray vvithout intermission. 18 In al things giue thankes. for this is the vvil of God in Christ IESVS in al you. 19 The Spirit

5. BUT of the times and the seasons, brethren, yee haue no need that I write vnto you. 2 For your selues know perfectly that the day of the Lord so commeth as a thiefe in the night. 3 For when they shall say, Peace and safetie: then sudden destruction commeth vpon them, as trauaile vpon a woman with child, and they shall not escape. 4 But ye, brethren, are not in darkenesse, that that day should ouertake you as a thiefe. 5 Ye are all the children of light, and the children of the day: wee are not of the night, nor of darkenesse. 6 Therefore let vs not sleepe, as do others: but let vs watch and be sober. 7 For they that sleepe, sleepe in the night, and they that bee drunken, are drunken in the night. 8 But let vs who are of the day, be sober, putting on the breastplate of faith and loue, and for an helmet, the hope of saluation. 9 For God hath not appointed vs to wrath: but to obtaine saluation by our Lord Iesus Christ, 10 Who died for vs, that whether we wake or sleepe, we should liue together with him. 11 Wherefore, [α] comfort your selues together, and edifie one another, euen as also ye doe.

12 And we beseech you, brethren, to know them which labour among you, and are ouer you in the Lord, and admonish you: 13 And to esteeme them very highly in loue for their workes sake, and be at peace among your selues. 14 Now wee [β] exhort you, brethren, warne them that are [γ] vnruly, comfort the feeble minded, support the weake, be patient toward all men. 15 See that none render euill for euill vnto any man: but euer follow that which is good, both among your selues and to all men.

16 Reioyce euermore: 17 Pray without ceasing: 18 In euery thing giue thankes: for this is the will of God in Christ Iesus concerning you. 19 Quench not the spirit:

1. PAUL and Siluanus, and Timotheus vnto the Church of the Thessalonians, in God our Father, and the Lord Iesus Christ: [2] Grace vnto you, and peace from God our Father, and the Lord Iesus Christ. [3] Wee are bound to thanke God alwayes for you, brethren, as it is meete, because that your faith groweth exceedingly, and the charitie of euery one of you all towards each other aboundeth: [4] So that wee our selues glorie in you in the Churches of God, for your patience and faith in all your persecutions and tribulations that yee endure. [5] Which is a manifest token of the righteous iudgement of God, that yee may bee counted worthy of the kingdome of God, for which ye also suffer; [6] Seeing it is a righteous thing with God to recompence tribulation to them that trouble you:

[7] And to you who are troubled, rest with vs, when the Lord Iesus shalbe reuealed from heauen, [α] with his mightie Angels, [8] In flaming fire, [β] taking vengeance on them that know not God, and that obey not the Gospel of our Lord Iesus Christ, [9] Who shall be punished with euerlasting destruction from the presence of the Lord,

15 Therfore brethren stand: and hold the traditions vvhich you haue learned, vvhether it be by vvord, or by our epistle. 16 And our Lord IESVS Christ him self, and God and our father vvhich hath loued vs, and hath giuen eternal consolation, and good hope in grace, 17 exhort your hartes, and confirme you in euery good vvorke and vvorde.

3. FOR the rest, brethren, pray for vs, that the vvord of God may haue course and be glorified, as also vvith you: 2 and that vve may be deliuered from importunate and naughtie men. for al men haue not faith. 3 But our Lord is faithful, vvho vvil confirme and keepe you from euil. 4 And vve haue confidence of you in our Lord, that the things vvhich vve commaund, both you doe, and vvil doe. 5 And our Lord direct your hartes in the charitie of God, and patience of Christ.

[12] Therfore I thanke him, which hath made me stronge, that is Christe Iesus our Lord: for he counted me faithful, and put me in his seruice, [13] When before I was a blasphemer, and a persecuter, and an oppresser. but he shewed mercie on me: for I dyd it ignorantly through vnbeliefe. [14] Yet the grace of our Lord was more abondant with fayth and loue which is in Christ Iesus. [15] This is a true saying, and by all meanes worthy to be receaued, that Christ Iesus came into the world to saue sinners, of whome I am chiefe.	[12] I giue him thankes vvhich hath strengthened me, Christ IESVS our Lord, because he hath esteemed me faithful, putting me in the ministerie. [13] vvho before vvas blasphemous and a persecutor and contumelious. but I obteined the mercie of God, because I did it being ignorant in incredulitie. [14] And the grace of our Lord ouer-abounded vvith faith and loue, vvhich is in Christ IESVS.	[12] And I thanke Christ Iesus our Lord, who hath enabled mee: for that he counted me faithfull, putting me into the Ministerie, [13] Who was before a blasphemer, and a persecuter, and iniurious. But I obtained mercie, because I did it ignorantly in vnbeliefe. [14] And the grace of our Lord was exceeding abundant, with faith, and loue, which is in Christ Iesus.
[16] Notwithstanding, for this cause was mercie geuen vnto me, that Iesus Christ should fyrst shewe on me all longe pacience, vnto the ensample of them which shal in tyme to come, beleue on hym vnto eternal lyfe. [17] So then vnto the kynge euerlasting, immortal, inuisible, vnto God, which is only wise, be honour and prayse for euer and euer. Amen. [18] This commandement commit I vnto thee sonne Timothie, accordyng to the prophecies, which in tyme past were prophecied of thee, that thou by them shouldest fyght a good fyght, [19] Hauing faith and good conscience, which some haue put away from them, and as concerning faith haue made shypwrake. [20] Of whose nombre is Hymeneus, and Alexander, which I haue deliuered vnto Satan, that they might learne not to blaspheme.	[15] A faithful saying, and vvorthie of al acceptation, that Christ IESVS came into this vvorld to saue sinners, of vvhom I am the cheefe. [16] But therfore haue I obtained mercie: that in me first of al Christ IESVS might shevv al patience, to the information of them that shal beleeue on him vnto life euerlasting. [17] And to the king of the vvorldes, immortal, inuisible, onely God, honour and glorie for euer and euer. Amen. [18] This precept I commend to thee ô Timothee: according to the prophecies going before on thee, that thou warre in them a good vvarfare, [19] hauing faith and a good conscience, vvhich certaine repelling, haue made shipvvracke about the faith. [20] Of vvhom is Hymenæus and Alexander: vvhom I haue deliuered to Satan, that they may learne not to blaspheme.	[15] This is a faithfull saying, and worthy of all acceptation, that Christ Iesus came into the world to saue sinners, of whom I am chiefe. [16] Howbeit, for this cause I obtained mercy, that in me first, Iesus Christ might shew foorth all long suffering, for a paterne to them which should hereafter beleeue on him to life euerlasting. [17] Now vnto the king eternal, immortall, inuisible, the onely wise God, be honour and glory for euer and euer. Amen. [18] This charge I commit vnto thee, sonne Timothie, according to the prophesies which went before on thee, that thou by them mightest warre a good warfare, [19] Holding faith, and a good conscience, which some hauing put away, concerning faith, haue made shipwracke. [20] Of whom is Hymeneus and Alexander, whom I haue deliuered vnto Satan, that they may learne not to blaspheme.
2. I EXHORTE therefore, that aboue all thinges, supplications, prayers, intercessions, and geuyng of thankes be had for all men. house, how shal he care for the Churche of God? [6] He may not be a yonge scholer, lest he swel, and fall into the condemnation of the deuil. [7] He must also be wel reported of among them which are without, lest he fall into rebuke, and the snare of the deuyl. [8] Lykewyse must Deacons be honest, not double tonged, nor geuen vnto muche wyne, nether to fylthy lucre. [9] But hauing the mysterie of the faith in pure conscience.

[10] And let them fyrst be proued, and then let them minister, yf they be founde fautlesse. [11] Euen so must their wyues be honest, not euyl speakers, but sober, and faithful in all thinges. [12] Let the Deacons be the housbandes of one wyfe, and suche as can rule their children wel, and their owne housholdes. [13] For they that haue ministered wel, get them selues a good degree, and great libertie in the faith, which is in Christ Iesus.

[14] These thinges write I vnto thee, trusting to come very shortely vnto thee: [15] But and if I tary longe, that then thou mayest yet haue knowledge, how thou oghtest to behaue thy selfe in the house of God, which is the Churche of the lyuing God, the pyllar and grounde of trueth. hovv shal he haue care of the Church of God? [6] Not a neophyte: lest puffed into pride, he fall into the iudgment of the Deuil. [7] And he must haue also good testimonie of them that are vvithout: that he fall not into reproch and the snare of the Deuil.

[8] Deacons in like maner chast, not double tonged, not giuen to much vvine, not folovvers of filthie lucre: [9] hauing the mysterie of faith in a pure conscience. [10] And let these also be proued first: and so let them minister, hauing no crime. [11] The vvomen in like maner chast, not detracting, sober, faithful in al things. [12] Let deacons be the husbandes of one vvife: vvhich rule vvel their children, and their houses. [13] For they that haue ministred vvel, shal purchase to them selues a good degree, and much confidence in the faith vvhich is in Christ IESVS.

[14] These things I vvrite to thee, hoping that I shal come to thee quickly. [15] but if I tary long, that thou maiest knovv how thou oughtest to conuerse in the house of God, which is the CHVRCH of the liuing God, the piller and ground of truth. [16] And manifestly it is a great sacrament of pietie, vvhich vvas manifested in flesh, vvas iustified in spirit, appeared to Angels, hath beene preached to gentils, is beleeued in the vvorld, is assumpted in glorie.

4. AND the Spirit manifestly saith that in the last times certain shal depart from the faith attending to spirites of errour, and doctrines of diuels, [2] speaking lies in hypocrisie, and hauing their conscience feared, [3] forbidding to marie, to abstaine from meates vvhich God created to receaue vvith thankes-giuing for the faithful, and them that haue knovven the truth. [4] For euery creature of God is good, and nothing to be reiected that is receiued vvith thankes-giuing.

sanctified by the worde of God and prayer. [6] If thou put the brethren in remembrance of these thinges, thou shalt be a good minister of Iesus Christe, which hast bene norished vp in the wordes of faith, and of good doctrine, which doctrine thou hast continually folowed. [7] But cast away prophane, and olde wyues fables: and exercise thy selfe vnto godlynes.	[5] For it is sanctified by the vword of God and praier.	sanctified by the word of God, and prayer. [6] If thou put the brethren in remembrance of these things, thou shalt be a good minister of Iesus Christ, nourished vp in the wordes of faith, and of good doctrine, whereunto thou hast attained. [7] But refuse prophane and olde wiues fables, and exercise thy selfe rather vnto godlinesse.
[8] For bodely exercise profiteth lytle: but godlynes is profitable vnto all thinges, as a thing which hath promise of the lyfe that is now, and of the lyfe to come. [9] This is a sure saying, and of all parties worthy to be receaued. [10] For therfore we labour and suffre rebuke, because we haue sure hope in the lyuing God, which is the Sauiour of all men, but specially of those that beleue. [11] These thinges commande and teache. [12] Let no man despice thy youth, but be vnto them that beleue an ensample, in worde, in conuersation, in loue, in sprite, in faith, and in purenes. [13] Tyl I come, geue attendance to reading, to exhortation, and to doctrine.	[6] These things proposing to the brethren, thou shalt be a good minister of Christ IESVS, nourished in the vvordes of the faith and the good doctrine vvhich thou hast attained vnto. [7] But folish and old vviues fables auoid: and exercise thy self to pietie. [8] For corporal exercise is profitable to litle: but pietie is profitable to al things: hauing promisse of the life that novv is, and of that to come.	[8] For bodily exercise profiteth [a] litle, but godlinesse is profitable vnto all things, hauing promise of the life that now is, and of that which is to come. [9] This is a faithful saying, and worthy of all acceptation: [10] For therfore we both labour, and suffer reproch, because we trust in the liuing God, who is the Sauiour of all men, specially of those that beleeue.
[14] Despice not that gyft that is in thee, which was geuen thee by prophecie with the laying on of the handes, by the Eldership. [15] These things exercise, and geue thy self vnto them, that it may be sene how thou profitest among al men. [16] Take hede vnto thy selfe, and vnto learning, and continue therin: for yf thou shalt so do, thou shalt saue thy selfe, and them that heare thee.	[9] A faithful saying and vvorthie of al acceptation. [10] For to this purpose vve labour and are reuiled, because vve hope in the liuing God vvhich is the Sauiour of al men, especially of the faithful. [11] Commaund these things and teach. [12] Let no man contemne thy youth: but be an example of the faithful, in vvord, in conuersation, in charitie, in faith, in chastitie. [13] Til I come, attend vnto reading, exhortation, doctrine. [14] Neglect not the grace that is in thee: vvhich is giuen thee by prophecie, vvith imposition of the handes of priesthod. [15] These things doe thou meditate, be in these things: that thy profiting may be manifest to al. [16] Attend to thy self, and to doctrine: be earnest in them. For, this doing, thou shalt saue both thy self and them that heare thee.	[11] These things command and teach. [12] Let no man despise thy youth, but be thou an example of the beleeuers, in word, in conuersation, in charitie, in spirit, in faith, in puritie. [13] Till I come, giue attendance to reading, to exhortation, to doctrine. [14] Neglect not the gift that is in thee, which was giuen thee by prophesie, with the laying on of the hands of the Presbyterie. [15] Meditate vpon these things, giue thy selfe wholly to them, that thy profiting may appeare [β] to all. [16] Take heed vnto thy selfe, and vnto the doctrine: continue in them: for in doing this, thou shalt both saue thy selfe, and them that heare thee.
5. REBUKE not an elder, but exhort him as a father: and the yonger men as brethren. [2] The elder women as mothers, the yonger as sisters, with al purenes. [3] Honour wydowes, which are true wyddowes. [4] If any wyddowe haue chyldren or nefues, let them learne first to shewe godlynes towarde their owne houses, and to recompence their kynred: for that is an honest thing and acceptable before God. [5] She that is a very wyddow and frenedlesse, putteth her trust in God, and continueth in supplications and prayers	5. A SENIOUR rebuke not: but beseeche as a father: yong men, as brethren: [2] old vvomen, as mothers: yong vvomen, as sisters, in al chastitie. [3] Honour vvidovves: vvhich are vvidovves in deede. [4] But if any vvidovv haue children or nephevves: let her learne first to rule her ovvne house, and to render mutual dutie to her parents. for this is acceptable before God. [5] But she that is a vvidovv in deede and desolate: let her hope in God, and continue	5. REBUKE not an Elder, but intreate him as a father, and the yonger men as brethren: [2] The elder women as mothers, the yonger as sisters with all puritie. [3] Honour widowes that are widowes indeed. [4] But if any widow haue children or nephewes, let them learne first to shew [γ] pietie at home, and to requite their parents: for that is good and acceptable before God. do worshyp to the doctrine of our Sauiour God in all thinges. 11 For the grace of God, that bryngeth saluation vnto all men, hath appeared. 12 And teacheth vs that we should denye vngodlynes, and worldy lustes, and that we shulde lyue sobrely, ryghteously and godly in this present worlde,	may adorne the doctrine of our Sauiour God in al things. 11 For the grace of God our Sauiour hath appeared to al men: 12 instructing vs that denying impietie and worldly desires, vve liue soberly, and iustly, and godly in this vvorld, 13 expecting the blessed hope and aduent of the glorie of the great God and our Sauiour IESVS Christ, 14 vvho gaue him self for vs, that he might redeeme vs from al iniquitie, and might cleanse to him self a people acceptable, a pursuer of good vvorkes. 15 These things speake, and exhort and rebuke vvith al authoritie. Let no man contemne thee.	of God our Sauiour in all things. 11 For the grace of God [a]that bringeth saluation, hath appeared to all men, 12 Teaching vs that denying vngodlinesse and worldly lusts, we should liue soberly, righteously and godly in this present world, 13 Looking for that blessed hope, and the glorious appearing of the great God, and our Sauiour Iesus Christ, 14 Who gaue himselfe for vs, that he might redeeme vs from all iniquitie, and purifie vnto himselfe a peculiar people, zealous of good workes. 15 These things speake and exhort, and rebuke with all authoritie. Let no man despise thee.
13 Loking for that blessed hope, and notable appearing of the glorie of the myghty God, which is of our Sauiour IESVS Christ, 14 Who gaue him selfe for vs, to redeme vs from all vnrighteousnes, and to purge vs a peculiar people vnto him selfe, feruently geuen vnto good workes. 15 These thinges speake, and exhorte, and rebuke, with all autoritie. Se that no man despice thee.
3. VVARNE them that they submit them selues to Rule and Power, to obey, that they be ready vnto all good workes. 2 That they speake euyl of no man, that they be no fyghters, but softe, shewyng all mekenes vnto all men. 3 For we our selues also were in tymes past, vnwyse, disobedient, deceaued, seruing to lustes, and to diuers manners of volupteousnes, lyuyng in maliciousnes and enuie, full of hate, hating one another.	3. ADMONISH them to be subiect to Princes and Potestates, to obey at a vvord, to be ready to euery good vvorke, 2 to blaspheme no man, not to be litigious, but modest: shevving al mildenes tovvard al men. 3 for we also vvere sometime vnvvise, incredulous, erring, seruing diuerse desires and voluptuousnesses, liuing in malice and enuie, odible, hating one an other.	3. PUT them in minde to bee subiect to Principalities and Powers, to obey magistrates, to bee ready to euery good worke, 2 To speake euill of no man, to bee no brawlers, but gentle, shewing all meekenesse vnto all men. 3 For we our selues also were sometimes foolish, disobedient, deceiued, seruing diuers lusts and pleasures, liuing in malice and enuie, hatefull, and hating one another.
4 But after that the kyndnes and loue of our Sauiour God to manwarde appeared. 5 Not of the dedes of ryghtuousnes which we wroght: but of his mercie he saued vs, by the fountayne of the newe byrth, and with the renuyng of the holy Gost, 6 Which he shed on vs abundantly, through Iesus Christ our Sauiour, 7 That we, being iustified by his grace should be made heyres according to the hope of eternal lyfe.	4 But vvhen the benignitie and kindnes tovvard man of our Sauiour God appeared: 5 not by the vvorkes of iustice vvhich vve did, but according to his mercie he hath saued vs by the lauer of regeneration and renouation of the holy Ghost, 6 vvhom he hath povvred vpon vs aboundantly by IESVS Christ our Sauiour: 7 that being iustified by his grace, vve may be heires according to hope of life euerlasting.	4 But after that the kindenesse and [β]loue of God our Sauiour toward man appeared, 5 Not by workes of righteousnesse which we haue done, but according to his mercy he saued vs, by the washing of regeneration, and renewing of the holy Ghost, 6 Which hee shed on vs [γ]abundantly, through Iesus Christ our Sauiour: 7 That being iustified by his grace, we should be made heires according to the hope of eternall life.

hym. [9] But we se Iesus crowned with glorie and honour: which for a while was made inferior to the Angels, through the suffering of death, that by Gods benefit he might taste death for all men.

[10] For it became hym, for whome are all thynges, and by whome are all thynges, seing that he broght many sonnes vnto glorie, that he shoulde consecrate the Prince of theyr saluation through afflictions. [11] For he that sanctifieth, and they whych are sanctified, are all of one. wherfore, he is not ashamed to call them brethren, [12] Saying, I wyl declare thy Name vnto my brethren, in the myddes of the Churche wyl I sing prayses to thee.

[13] And agayne, I wyl put my trust in hym. And agayne, Beholde here am I, and the chyldren which God hath geuen me. [14] Forasmuche then as the chyldren were partetakers of fleshe and bloude, he also hym selfe lykewyse toke part wyth them, for to put downe through death, hym that had Lordshyp ouer death, that is the deuyl, [15] And that he might deliuer them, which for feare of death were all there life time in danger of bondage. [16] For he in no sort toke the Angels: but he toke the seed of Abraham. [17] Wherfore in all thinges it became hym to be made lyke vnto his brethren, that he myght be merciful, and a faithful hie Prieste in thinges concerning God, for to purge the peoples synnes. [18] For in that he hym selfe suffered and was tempted, he is able to sucker them that are tempted.

3. THERFORE holy brethren, partakers of the heauen by callyng, consider the Apostle and hye Prieste of our profession Christ Iesus: [2] Who was faithful to him that hath appointed hym, euen as Moses was faithful in all his house. RHEIMS—1582.

[9] But him that vvas a litle lessened vnder the Angels, vve see IESVS, because of the passion of death, crovvned vvith glorie and honour: that through the grace of God he might tast death for al. [10] For it became him for vvhom al things, and by vvhom al things, that had brought many children into glorie, to consummate the author of their saluation, by his passion.

[11] For he that sanctifieth, and they that be sanctified: al of one. For the which cause he is not ashamed to call them brethren, [12] saying, I vvil declare thy name to my brethren: in the middes of the Church vvil I praise thee. [13] And againe, I vvil haue affiance in him. And againe, Behold here am I and my children: vvhom God hath giuen me. [14] Therfore because the children haue communicated vvith flesh and bloud, him self also in like maner hath been partaker of the same: that by death he might destroy him that had the empire of death, that is to say, the Deuil: [15] and might deliuer them that by the feare of death through al their life vvere subiect to seruitude.

[16] For no vvhere doth he take Angels: but the seede of Abraham he taketh. [17] Vvherevpon he ought in al things to be like vnto his brethren: that he might become a merciful and faithful high Priest before God, that he might repropitiate the sinnes of the people. [18] For in that vvherein him self suffered and vvas tempted: he is able to helpe them also that are tempted.

3. WHEREFORE holy brethren, partakers of the heauenly vocation, consider the Apostle, and high priest of our confession IESVS: [2] vvho is faithful to him that made him, as also Moyses in al his house. [3] For, this man is esteemed vvorthie of more ample glorie aboue Moyses, by so much as more ample glorie then the house, hath he that framed it.

[9] But wee see Iesus, who was made a little lower then the Angels, [α] for the suffering of death, crowned with glory and honour, that hee by the grace of God should taste death for euery man. [10] For it became him for whom are all things, and by whom are all things, in bringing many sonnes vnto glory, to make the Captaine of their saluation perfect through sufferings. [11] For both he that sanctifieth, and they who are sanctified, are all of one: for which cause he is not ashamed to cal them brethren, [12] Saying, I will declare thy Name vnto my brethren, in the midst of the Church will I sing praise vnto thee. [13] And againe, I will put my trust in him: and againe, Behold, I, and the children which God hath giuen me. [14] Forasmuch then as the children are partakers of flesh and blood, he also himselfe likewise tooke part of the same, that through death hee might destroy him that had the power of death, that is, the deuill: [15] And deliuer them, who through feare of death were all their life time subiect to bondage. [16] For verely he [β] tooke not on him the nature of Angels: but he tooke on him the seed of Abraham. [17] Wherfore in all things it behoued him to bee made like vnto his brethren, that he might bee a mercifull and faithfull high Priest, in things pertaining to God, to make reconciliation for the sinnes of the people. [18] For in that he himselfe hath suffered, being tempted, he is able to succour them that are tempted.

[2] For vnto vs was it declared, as well as vnto them. But it proffited not them that they hearde the worde, because they which hearde it, coupled it not with fayth. [3] But we which have beleved, do enter into his rest, as contrary wyse he sayde to the other: I have sworne in my wrath, they shall not enter into my rest. And that spake he verely longe after that the workes were made and the foundacion of the worlde layde. [4] For he spake in a certayne place of the seventh daye, on this wyse: And god did rest the seventh daye from all his workes. [5] And in this place agayne: They shall not come into my rest.

[6] Seynge therfore it foloweth that some muste enter therinto, and they to whom it was fyrst preached, entred not therin for vnbeleves sake. haue bene disapoynted. [2] For vnto vs is it declared, as well as vnto them. But it proffyted not them, that they hearde the worde: because they which hearde it, coupled it not with fayth [3] (For we whych haue beleued, do enter into his rest) as he sayde Euen as I haue sworne in my wrath: they shall not enter into my rest. And that spake he verely longe after that the workes were made and the foundacion of the worlde layde. [4] For he spake in a certayne place of the seuenth daye, on this wyse And God dyd rest the seuenth daye from all hys workes. [5] And in thys place agayne: They shall not enter into my rest.

[6] Seynge therfore it foloweth, that some must enter therinto, and they (to whom it was fyrst preached) entred not therin for vnbelefes sake, [7] he apoynteth a certayne daye after so longe a tyme sayinge in Dauid (as it is rehearsed) this daye yf ye will heare hys voyce, harden not your hertes. [8] For yf Iosue had geuen them rest, then wolde he not afterwarde haue spoken of another daye. [9] Ther remayneth therfore yet a rest to the people of God. [10] For he that is entred into his rest hath ceased also from hys awne workes, as God dyd from hys.

[11] Let vs study therfore to entre into that rest, lest eny man faule after the same ensample of vnbelefe. [12] For the worde of God is quycke and mighty in operacion, and sharper then eny two edged swearde: and entreth through, euen vnto the diuidinge a sonder of the soule and the sprete, and of the ioyntes and the mary: and is a discerner of the thoughtes and of the intentes of the herte: [13] nether is ther eny creature that is not manifest in the syght of him: But all thinges are naked and open vnto the eyes of him, of whom we speake.

[14] Seynge then, that we haue a great hye prest which is entred into heauen (euen Iesus the sonne of God) let vs holde the profession (of oure hope) [15] For we haue be depriued. [2] For vnto vs was the Gospel preached as also vnto them: but it proffited not them that they hearde the worde, because they that heard it, had not the mixtion of faith. [3] For we which haue beleued, do enter into rest, as contrary wyse he sayd to the other, I haue sworne in my wrathe, If they shal enter into my rest. All thogh the workes were made perfect from the foundation of the worlde.

[4] For he spake in a certayne place of the seuenth day, on this wise, And God did rest the seuenth day from all his workes. [5] And in this place agayne, If they shal enter into my rest. [6] Seing therfore it foloweth that some must enter therinto, and they to whom it was first preached, entred not therin for vnbelefes sake. [7] Agayne he appoynted in Dauid a certayne day by (To day) after so longe a time, saying as it is rehearsed, This day if ye heare his voyce harden not your hearts.

[8] For if Iosue had geuen them rest, then would he not afterward haue spoken of an other day. [9] There remayneth therfore yet a reste to the people of God. [10] For he that is entred into his rest, hath also ceased from his owne workes, as God did from his. [11] Let vs study therfore to entre into that rest, lest any man falle after the same ensample of stubbernes. [12] For the worde of God is quycke, and mighty in operation, and sharper then any two edged sworde: and entreth through, euen vnto the diuidyng a sonder of the soule and the sprite, and of the ioyntes and the marye: and is a discerner of the thoghtes and the intentes of the heart:

vvanting. [2] For to vs also it hath been denounced, as also to them. but the vvord of hearing did not profit them, not mixt vvith faith of those things vvhich they heard. [3] For vve that haue beleeued, shal enter into the rest: as he said, As I svvare in my vvrath, if they shal enter into my rest: and truely the vvorkes from the foundation of the vvorld being perfited.

[4] For he said in a certaine place of the seuenth day, thus: And God rested the seuenth day from al his vvorkes. [5] And againe in this, If they shal enter into my rest. [6] Because then it remaineth that certaine enter into it, and they to vvhom first it vvas preached, did not enter because of incredulitie: [7] againe he limiteth a certaine day: To day, in Dauid saying, after so long time, as is aboue said, To day if you shal heare his voice: doe not obdurate your hartes. [8] For if Iesus had giuen them rest: he vvould neuer speake of an other day aftervvard. [9] Therfore there is left a sabbatisme for the people of God. [10] For he that is entred into his rest, the same also hath rested from his vvorkes, as God from his.

[11] Let vs hasten therfore to enter into that rest: that no man fal into the same example of incredulitie. [12] For the vvord of God is liuely and forcible, and more persing then any tvvo edged svvord: and reaching vnto the diuision of the soule and the spirit, of the ioyntes also and the marowes, and a discerner of the cogitations and intentes of the hart. [13] And there is no creature inuisible in his sight. but al things are naked and open to his eies, to vvhom our speache is.

[14] Hauing therfore a great high Priest that hath entred the heauens, IESVS the sonne of God, let vs hold the confession. [15] For vve haue not a high priest that can

it. [2] For vnto vs was the Gospel preached, as wel as vnto them: but [α] the word preached did not profit them, [β] not being mixed with faith in them that heard it. [3] For we which haue beleeued do enter into rest, as hee said, As I haue sworne in my wrath, if they shall enter into my rest, although the works were finished from the foundation of the world. [4] For he spake in a certaine place of the seuenth day on this wise: And God did rest the seuenth day from all his works. [5] And in this place againe: If they shall enter into my rest. [6] Seeing therfore it remaineth that some must enter therein, and they to whom [γ] it was first preached, entred not in because of vnbeliefe: [7] Againe, hee limiteth a certaine day, saying in Dauid, To day, after so long a time; as it is sayd, To day if ye will heare his voyce, harden not your hearts. [8] For if [δ] Iesus had giuen them rest, then would he not afterward haue spoken of another day. [9] There remaineth therefore a [ε] rest to the people of God. [10] For he that is entred into his rest, hee also hath ceased from his owne works, as God did from his.

[11] Let vs labour therefore to enter into that rest, lest any man fall after the same example of [ζ] vnbeleefe. [12] For the word of God is quicke and powerfull, and sharper then any two edged sword, pearcing euen to the diuiding asunder of soule and spirit, and of the ioynts and marrow, and is a discerner of the thoughts and intents of the heart. [13] Neither is there any creature that is not manifest in his sight: but all things are naked, and opened vnto the eyes of him with whome wee haue to doe. [14] Seeing then that wee haue a great high Priest, that is passed into the heauens, Iesus the Sonne of God, let vs hold fast our profession. [15] For we haue not

[13] For euery one that is partaker of milke, is vnskilful of the vvord of iustice: for he is a childe. [14] But strong meate is for the perfect, them that by custome haue their senses exercised to the discerning of good and euil.	God, and are become such as haue need of milke, and not of strong meat. [13] For euery one that vseth milke, is [α] vnskilfull in the word of righteousnesse: for he is a babe. [14] But strong meate belongeth to them that are [β] of ful age, euen those who by reason [γ] of vse haue their senses exercised to discerne both good and euill.
6. THERFORE, let vs leaue the doctrine perteyning to the beginning of a Christen man, and let vs go vnto perfection, and no more laye the foundation of repentance from dead workes, and of faith towarde God, [2] Of the doctrine of baptismes, and laying on of handes, and of resurrection from the dead, and of eternal iudgement. inherit the promis. [13] For when God made promis to Abraham because he had no greater to sweare by, he sware by him selfe, [14] Saying, Surely I wyl moste abundantly blesse thee and multiplie thee aboue measure.

[15] And so after that he had taryed paciently, he enioyed the promis. [16] For men verely sweare by hym that is greater then them selues, and an othe to confirme the thyng, is among them an ende of all stryfe. [17] So God wylling very abundantly to shewe vnto the heyres of promys, the stablenesse of his counsel, he assured by an othe, [18] That by two immutable thinges, in which it is vnpossible that God shulde lye we myght haue stronge consolation, which haue fled to this, for to holde faste the hope that is set before vs. [19] Which hope we haue, as an ancre of the soule, both sure and stedfast, and it entreth in, into the thynges which are within the vayle. patience shal inherite the promisses.

[13] For God promising to Abraham, because he had none greater by vvhom he might sweare, he sware by him self, [14] saying, Vnles blessing I shal blesse thee, and multiplying shal multiplie thee. [15] And so patiently enduring he obtained the promise. [16] For men svveare by a greater then them selues: and the end of al their controuersie, for the confirmation, is an othe. [17] Vvherein God meaning more aboundantly to shevv to the heires of the promise the stabilitie of his counsel, he interposed an othe: [18] that by tvvo things vnmoueable, vvhereby it is impossible for God to lie, vve may haue a most strong comfort. vvho haue fled to hold fast the hope proposed, [19] vvhich vve haue as an anker of the soule, sure and firme, and going in into the inner partes of the vele, [20] vvhere IESVS the precursor for vs is entered, made a high priest for euer according to the order of Melchisedec.

[15] And so after hee had patiently indured, he obtained the promise.

[16] For men verily sweare by the greater, and an oath for confirmation is to them an end of all strife. [17] Wherein God willing more abundantly to shew vnto the heires of promise the immutabilitie of his counsell, [a] confirmed it by an oath: [18] That by two immutable things, in which it was impossible for God to lye, wee might haue a strong consolation, who haue fled for refuge to lay hold vpon the hope set before vs. [19] Which hope wee haue as an anker of the soule both sure and stedfast, and which entreth into that within the vaile, [20] Whither the forerunner is for vs entered; euen Iesus, made an high Priest for euer after the order of Melchisedec.

14 For it is manifest that our Lord sprung of Iuda: in the which tribe Moyses spake nothing of priestes. 15 And yet it is much more euident: if according to the similitude of Melchisedec there arise an other priest, 16 vvhich vvas not made according to the Lavv of the carnal commaundement, but according to the povver of life indissoluble. 17 For he vvitnesseth, That thou art a priest for euer, according to the order of Melchisedec. 18 Reprobation certes is made of the former commaundement, because of the vveakenesse and vnprofitablenesse thereof. 19 For the Lavv brought nothing to perfection, but an introduction of a better hope, by the vvhich vve approche to God.

should not certes a place of a second been sought. [8] For blaming them, he saith: Behold the daies shal come, saith our Lord: and I vvil consummate vpon the house of Israel, and vpon the house of Iuda a nevv Testament: [9] not according to the testament vvhich I made to their fathers in the day that I tooke their hand to bring them out of the land of Ægypt. because they did not continue in my testament: and I neglected them, saith our Lord. [10] For this is the testament vvhich I vvil dispose to the house of Israel after those daies, saith our Lord: Giuing my lavves into their minde, and in their hart vvil I superscribe them: and I vvil be their God, and they shall be my people: [11] and euery one shal not teach his neighbour, and euery one his brother, saying, Knovv our Lord: because al shal knovv me from the lesser to the greater of them: [12] because I wil be merciful to their iniquities, and their sinnes I wil not now remember.

[13] And in saying a nevv, the former he hath made old. And that vvhich grovveth auncient and vvaxeth old, is nigh to vtter decay.

[8] For finding fault with them, hee saith, Behold, the dayes come (saith the Lord) when I will make a new Couenant with the house of Israel, and the house of Iudah. [9] Not according to the Couenant that I made with their fathers, in the day when I tooke them by the hand to lead them out of the land of Egypt, because they continued not in my Couenant, and I regarded them not, saith the Lord. [10] For this is the Couenant that I will make with the house of Israel after those dayes, saith the Lord: I will [α] put my Lawes into their minde, and write them [β] in their hearts: and I will be to them a God, and they shall be to me a people. [11] And they shall not teach euery man his neighbour, and euery man his brother, saying, Know the Lord: For all shall know me, from the least to the greatest. [12] For I will bee mercifull to their vnrighteousnes, and their sinnes, and their iniquities will I remember no more. [13] In that he saith, A new Couenant, he hath made the first olde. Now that which decayeth and waxeth old, is readie to vanish away.

9. THEN verily the first Couenant had also [γ] ordinances of diuine Seruice, and a worldly Sanctuary. ordained, the Priestes went alwayes into the first Tabernacle, accomplishing the seruice of God. 7 But into the second went the high Priest alone once euery yeere, not without blood, which hee offered for himselfe, and for the errours of the people. 8 The holy Ghost this signifying, that the way into the Holiest of all, was not yet made manifest, while as the first Tabernacle was yet standing: 9 Which was a figure for the time then present, in which were offred both gifts and sacrifices, that could not make him that did the seruice perfect, as pertayning to the conscience, 10 Which stood onely in meates and drinkes, and diuers washings, and [α] carnall ordinances imposed on them vntill the time of reformation. 11 But Christ being come an high Priest of good things to come, by a greater and more perfect Tabernacle, not made with hands, that is to say, not of this building: 12 Neither by the blood of Goates and Calues: but by his owne blood hee entred in once into the Holy place, hauing obtained eternall redemption for vs.

13 For if the blood of Bulls, and of goats, and the ashes of an heifer sprinkling the vncleane, sanctifieth to the purifying of the flesh: 14 How much more shall the blood of Christ, who through the eternall Spirit, offered himselfe without [β] spot to God, purge your conscience from dead workes, to serue the liuing God? 15 And for this cause hee is the Mediatour of the New Testament, that by meanes of death, for the redemption of the transgressions that were vnder the first Testament, they which are called, might receiue the promise of eternall inheritance. 16 For where a Testament is, there must also of necessitie [γ] bee the death of the Testatour. 17 For a Testament is of force after men are dead: otherwise it is of no strength at all whilest the Testatour liueth. 18 Whereupon, neither the first Testament was [δ] dedicated the worshippers once purged, should haue had no more conscience of sinnes? [3] But in those sacrifices there is a remembrance againe made of sinnes euery yeere. [4] For it is not possible that the blood of Bulls and of Goats, should take away sinnes.

[11] And euery priest in deede is ready daily ministring, and often offering the same hostes, vvhich can neuer take avvay sinnes: [12] but this man offering one host for sinnes, for euer sitteth on the right hand of God, [13] hence forth expecting, vntil his enemies be put the footestoole of his feete. [14] For by one oblation hath he consummated for euer them that are sanctified. [15] And the holy Ghost also doth testifie to vs. For after that he said: [16] And this is the Testament vvhich I vvil make to them after those daies, saith our Lord, giuing my lavves in their hartes, and in their mindes vvil I superscribe them: [17] and their sinnes and iniquities I vvil novv remember no more. [18] But vvhere there is remission of these, novv there is not an oblation for sinnes.

[5] Wherefore when he commeth into the world, he saith, Sacrifice and offering thou wouldest not, but a body [α] hast thou prepared me: [6] In burnt offerings, and sacrifices for sinne thou hast had no pleasure: [7] Then said I, Loe, I come. (In the volume of the booke it is written of me) to doe thy will, O God. [8] Aboue when hee said, Sacrifice, and offering, and burnt offerings, and offering for sinne thou wouldest not, neither hadst pleasure therein, which are offered by the Law: [9] Then said he, Loe, I come to doe thy will (O God:) He taketh away the first, that he may establish the second. [10] By the which will we are sanctified, through the offering of the body of Iesus Christ once for all. [11] And euery Priest standeth dayly ministring, and offring oftentimes the same sacrifices, which can neuer take away sinnes. [12] But this man after he had offred one sacrifice for sinnes for euer, sate downe on the right hand of God, [13] From henceforth expecting till his enemies be made his footstoole. [14] For by one offering he hath perfected for euer them that are sanctified. [15] Whereof the holy Ghost also is a witnesse to vs: for after that he had said before, [16] This is the Couenant that I wil make with them after those dayes, saith the Lord: I wil put my Lawes into their hearts, and in their mindes will I write them: [17] And their sinnes and iniquities will I remember no more. [18] Now, where remission of these is, there is no more offering for sinne.

38 Now the iust shal lyue by faith. but if any withdraw him selfe, my soule shal haue no pleasure in hym.	38 and my iust liueth of faith. but if he vvithdravv him self, he shal not please my soule.	38 Now the iust shall liue by faith: but if any man drawe backe, my soule shall haue no pleasure in him.
39 We are not they which withdraw our selues vnto damnation, but beleue to the saluation of the soule.	39 But vve are not the children of vvithdravving vnto perdition: but of faith to the vvinning of the soule.	39 But wee are not of them who draw backe vnto perdition: but of them that beleeue, to the sauing of the soule.
11. FAYTH is that, which causeth those things to appeare in deed which are hoped for, and sheweth euidently the thinges which are not sene.	11. AND faith is, the substance of things to be hoped for, the argument of things not appearing.	11. NOW faith is the [α] substance of things hoped for, the euidence of things not seen.
2 For by it our elders were wel reported of.	2 For in this the old men obtained testimonie.	2 For by it the Elders obtained a good report.
3 Through faith we vnderstand that the world was ordeined by the worde of God, so that the thinges which we se, are not made of thinges which dyd appeare.	3 By faith, vve vnderstand that the vvorldes vvere framed by the vvord of God: that of inuisible things visible things might be made.	3 Through faith wee vnderstand that the worlds were framed by the word of God, so that things which are seene were not made of things which doe appeare.
4 By faith Abel offered vnto God a more plenteous sacrifice then Cain: by which faith he obteyned wytnes that he was ryghteous, God testifiyng of his giftes: by which faith also he being dead, yet speaketh.	4 By faith, Abel offered a greater hoste to God then Cain: by vvhich he obtained testimonie that he vvas iust, God giuing testimonie to his giftes, and by it, he being dead, yet speaketh.	4 By faith Abel offered vnto God a more excellent sacrifice then Kain, by which he obtained witnes that he was righteous, God testifying of his gifts: and by it he being dead, [β] yet speaketh.
5 By faith was Enoch translated, that he shuld not se death: nether was he founde: for God had taken him away: for before he was taken away, he was reported of, that he had pleased God:	5 By faith Henoch vvas translated, that he should not see death, and he vvas not found: because God translated him. for before his translation he had testimonie that he had pleased God.	5 By faith Enoch was translated, that hee should not see death, and was not found, because God had translated him: For before his translation he had this testimony, that he pleased God.
6 But without faith it is vnpossible to please hym: for he that cometh to God must beleue that God is, and that he is a rewarder of them that seke hym.	6 But vvithout faith it is impossible to please God. For he that commeth to God, must beleeue that he is, and is a revvarder to them that seeke him.	6 But without faith it is impossible to please him: for hee that commeth to God, must beleeue that hee is, and that he is a rewarder of them that diligently seeke him.
7 By faith Noe being warned of God, of the thinges which were as yet not sene, moued with reuerence prepared the arcke to the sauyng of his housholde, through the which arcke, he condemned the worlde, and was made heyre of the rightuousnes, which commeth by faith.	7 By faith, Noë hauing receiued an answver concerning those things vvhich as yet vvere not seen, fearing, framed the arke for the sauing of his house, by the vvhich he condemned the vvorld: and vvas instituted heire of the iustice vvhich is by faith.	7 By faith Noah being warned of God of things not seene as yet, [γ] moued with feare, prepared an Arke to the sauing of his house, by the which he condemned the world, and became heire of the righteousnesse which is by faith.

[11] By faith, Sara also her self being barren, receiued vertue in conceauing of seede, yea past the time of age: because she beleeued that he vvas faithful which had promised. [12] For the vvhich cause euen of one (and him quite dead) there rose as the starres of heauen in multitude, and as the sand that is by the sea shore innumerable.

[13] According to faith died al these, not hauing receiued the promises, but beholding them a farre of, and saluting them, and confessing that they are pilgrimes and strangers vpon the earth: [14] for they that say these things, doe signifie that they seeke a countrie. 22 By faith Ioseph when he died, remembred the departing of the children of Israel, and gaue commandement of his bones. 23 By faith Moses when he was borne, was hyd thre monethes of his father and mother, because they sawe he was a proper chylde: nether feared they the kynges commandement.	22 By faith, Ioseph dying, made mention of the going forth of the children of Israël: and gaue commaundement concerning his bones. 23 By faith, Moyses being borne, vvas hidde three monethes by his parents: because they savv him a proper infant, and they feared not the kings edict.
24 By faith Moses when he was come to age, refused to be called the sonne of Pharaos daughter: 25 And chose rather to suffre aduersitie with the people of God, then to enioy the pleasures of sinnes for a ceason, 26 Esteming the rebuke of Christ greater riches then the treasures of Egypt: for he had respect vnto the rewarde. 27 By faith he forsoke Egypt, and feared not the fearcenes of the kyng: for he endured, euen as he that had sene hym which is inuisible.	24 By faith, Moyses being made great, denied him self to be the sonne of Pharaos daughter: 25 rather chosing to be afflicted vvith the people of God, then to haue the pleasure of temporal sinne, 26 esteeming the reproche of Christ, greater riches then the treasure of the Ægyptians. for he looked vnto the remuneration. 27 By faith, he left Ægypt: not fearing the fiercenes of the king. for him that is inuisible he susteined as if he had seen him. 28 By faith, he celebrated the Pasche, and the sheading of the bloud: that he vvhich destroied the first-borne, might not touche them. 29 By faith they passed the redde sea as it vvere by the drie land: vvhich the Ægyptians assaying, vvere deuoured.	25 Chusing rather to suffer affliction with the people of God, then to enioy the pleasures of sinne for a season: 26 Esteeming the reproch [β]of Christ greater riches then the treasures in Egypt: for he had respect vnto the recompense of the reward. 27 By faith hee forsooke Egypt, not fearing the wrath of the king: for he indured, as seeing him who is inuisible. 28 Through faith he kept the Passeouer, and the sprinkling of blood, lest he that destroyed the first borne, should touch them. 29 By faith they passed through the red sea, as by drie land: which the Egyptians assaying to do, were drowned.
28 Through faith he ordeyned the Easter lambe, and the effusion of bloude, lest he that destroyed the firste borne, should touche them. 29 By faith they passed through the red sea as by dry land, which when the Egyptians had assayed to do, they were drouned. 30 By faith the walles of Iericho fell doune after they were compassed about seuen dayes. 31 By faith the harlot Rahab perished not with them which obeyed not, when she had receaued the spies to lodging peaseably.	30 By faith the vvalles of Iericho fel dovvne, by the circuting of seuen daies. 31 By faith, Rahab the harlot perished not vvith the incredulous, receiuing the spies vvith peace.	30 By faith the walles of Iericho fell downe, after they were compassed about seuen dayes. 31 By faith the harlot Rahab perished not with them [γ]that beleeued not, when shee had receiued the spies with peace.
32 And what shal I more say, the time would be to short for me to tell of Gedeon, of Barac, and of Sampson, and of Iephte, also of Dauid, and Samuel, and of the Prophetes: 33 Which through faith subdued kingdomes, wroght rightuousnes, obteyned the promises, stopped the mouthes of lyons, 34 Quenched the violence of fire, escaped the edge of the sword, of weake were made strong, waxed valient in fight,	32 And vvhat shal I yet say? For the time vvil faile me telling of Gedeon, Barac, Sampson, Iephtè, Dauid, Samuël, and the prophets: 33 vvho by faith ouercame kingdoms, vvrought iustice, obteined promises, stopped the mouthes of lions, 34 extinguished the force of fire, repelled the edge of the svvord, recouered of their infirmitie, vvere made strong in battel,	32 And what shall I more say? for the time would faile mee to tell of Gideon, and of Barak, and of Sampson, and of Iephthah, of Dauid also and Samuel, and of the Prophets: 33 Who through faith subdued kingdomes, wrought righteousnesse, obteined promises, stopped the mouthes of Lions, 34 Quenched the violence of fire, escaped the edge of the sword, out of weakenesse were made strong, waxed valiant in fight, turned to not? [8] If ye be without correction where of, all are partakers, then are ye bastardes and not sonnes. [9] Moreouer we haue had the fathers of our bodies which corrected vs, and we gaue them reuerence: should we not muche rather be in subiection vnto the Father of sprits, that we myght lyue? [10] For they verely for a fewe dayes, chastened vs after their owne pleasure: but he chasteneth vs for our proffit, that we might be partakers of his holynes. [11] No maner chastysing for the present tyme semeth to be ioyous, but greuous: but afterward, it bringeth the quiet frute of rightuousnes, vnto them which are therby exercised. [12] Wherfore lift vp your handes which hange doune, and your weake knees. [13] And se that ye haue strayght steppes vnto your fete, lest that which is halting lead you out of the way, but let it rather be healed. [14] Follow peace wyth all men, and holynes: wythout the which no man shal se the Lord. [15] Take hede, that no man fall a way from the grace of God, and that no rote of bitternes spring vp and trouble, and therby many be defyled: [16] And that there be no fornicator, or vncleane person as Esau, which for one portion of meate, solde his title of the first begotton. [17] For ye knowe how that afterwarde also when he wold haue inhereted the blessynge, he was put by, for he founde no place to his repentance, thogh he soght the blessing with teares. [18] For ye are not come vnto the mounte that might be touched, and vnto burnyng fyre, nor yet to blacknes and darcknes, and tempeste of wether, [19] Nether vnto the sounde of a trompet, and the voyce of wordes: which voyce they that heard it, excused them selues, that the communication should not be spoken to them any more. [20] (For they were not able to abyde, that which was commanded, If as muche as a beaste touche the mountayne, it shalbe stoned, or thrust thorow with a darte: [21] And so terrible was the sight which appeared, that Moses sayd, I feare and quake.) [22] But ye are come vnto the mounte	doth not correct? [8] But if you be vvithout discipline, vvhereof al be made partakers: then are you bastards, and not children. [9] Moreouer the fathers in deede of our flesh vve had for instructors, and vve did reuerence them: shal vve not much more obey the Father of spirites, and liue? [10] And they in deede for a time of fevv daies, according to their vvil instructed vs: but he, to that vvhich is profitable in receiuing of his sanctification. [11] And al discipline for the present certes seemeth not to be of ioy, but of sorovv: but aftervvard it vvil render to them that are exercised by it, most peaceable fruite of iustice. [12] For the vvhich cause stretch vp the slacked handes and the loose knees: [13] and make straight steppes to your feete: that no man halting erre, but rather be healed. [14] Folovv peace vvith al men, and holinesse: vvithout vvhich no man shal see God: [15] looking diligently lest any man be vvanting to the grace of God: lest any roote of bitternes springing vp do hinder, and by it many be polluted. [16] Lest there be any fornicator or prophane person as Esau: vvho for one dish of meate sold his first-birth-rightes. [17] For knovv ye that aftervvard also desiring to inherite the benediction, he vvas reprobated: for he found not place of repentance, although vvith teares he had sought it. [18] For you are not come to a palpable mount, and an accessible fire, and vvhirlevvinde, and darkenes, and storme, [19] and the sound of trompet, and voice of vvordes, vvhich they that heard, excused them selues, that the vvord might not be spoken to them, ([20] for they did not beare that which was said, And if a beast shal touche the mount, it shal be stoned. [21] And so terrible vvas it vvhich vvas seen, Moyses said: I am frighted and tremble. [22] But you are come to mount Sion, and	not? [8] But if ye be without chastisement, whereof all are partakers, then are ye bastards, and not sonnes. [9] Furthermore, wee haue had fathers of our flesh, which corrected vs, and we gaue them reuerence: shall we not much rather bee in subiection vnto the Father of Spirits, and liue? [10] For they verily for a fewe dayes chastened vs after their owne pleasure, but he for our profit, that we might bee partakers of his holinesse. [11] Now no chastening for the present seemeth to be ioyous, but grieuous: neuerthelesse, afterward it yeeldeth the peaceable fruit of righteousnesse, vnto them which are exercised thereby. [12] Wherefore lift vp the handes which hang downe, and the feeble knees. [13] And make [α] straight pathes for your feet, lest that which is lame be turned out of the way, but let it rather bee healed. [14] Follow peace with all men, and holinesse, without which no man shall see the Lord: [15] Looking diligently, lest any man [β] faile of the grace of God, lest any roote of bitternesse springing vp, trouble you, and thereby many be defiled: [16] Lest there be any fornicatour, or prophane person, as Esau, who for one morsell of meat sold his birthright. [17] For yee know how that afterward when hee would haue inherited the blessing, hee was reiected: for hee found no [γ] place of repentance, though he sought it carefully with teares. [18] For yee are not come vnto the Mount that might be touched, and that burned with fire, nor vnto blacknesse, and darknesse, and tempest, [19] And the sound of a Trumpet, and the voyce of wordes, which voyce they that heard, entreated that the word should not bee spoken to them any more. [20] For they could not indure that which was commaunded: And if so much as a beast touch the Mountaine, it shall be stoned, or thrust thorow with a dart. [21] And so terrible was the sight, that Moses saide, I exceedingly feare, and quake. [22] But yee are come vnto mount Sion,

You haue stored to your selues vvrath in the last daies.

4 Behold the hire of the vvorkemen that haue reaped your fields, vvhich is defrauded of you, crieth: and their crie hath entred into the eares of the Lord of Sabboth. 5 You haue made merie vpon the earth: and in riotousnes you haue nourished your hartes in the day of slaughter. 6 You haue presented, and slaine the iust one: and he resisted you not.

7 Be patient therfore brethren, vntil the comming of our Lord. Behold, the husband man expecteth the pretious fruite of the earth: patiently bearing til he receiue the timely and the latevvard. 8 Be you also patient, and confirme your hartes: because the comming of our Lord vvil approche. 9 Grudge not brethren one against an other: that you be not iudged. Behold, the iudge standeth before the gate. 10 Take an example, brethren, of labour and patience, the prophetes: vvhich spake in the name of our Lord. 11 Behold vve account them blessed that haue suffered.

[25] But the word of the Lord endureth for euer: and this is the word which by the Gospel is preached vnto you.

2. WHEREFORE laying aside all malice, and all guile, and hypocrisies, and enuies, and euill speakings, [2] As new borne babes desire the sincere milke of the word, that ye may grow thereby, [3] If so be yee haue tasted that the Lord is gracious. [4] To whom comming as vnto a liuing Stone disallowed indeed of men, but chosen of God, and precious, [5] Ye also as liuely stones, [β] are built vp a spirituall house, an holy Priesthood to offer vp spirituall sacrifice, acceptable to God by Iesus Christ. [6] Wherefore it is contained in the Scripture, Behold, I lay in Sion a chiefe corner stone, elect, precious, and hee that beleeueth on him, shall not bee confounded.

[7] Unto you therefore which beleeue [γ] hee is precious; but vnto them which be disobedient, the stone which the builders disallowed, the same is made the head of the corner, [8] And a Stone of stumbling, and a Rocke of offence, euen to them which stumble at the word, being disobedient, whereunto also they were appointed.

[9] But yee are a chosen generation, a royall Priesthood, an holy nation, a [δ] peculiar people, that yee should shew foorth the [ε] praises of him, who hath called you out of darkenesse into his marueilous light: [10] Which in time past were not a people, but are now the people of God: which had not obtained mercy, but now haue obtained mercy. [11] Dearely beloued, I beseech you as strangers and pilgrimes, [α] Or, for that. [β] Or, be ye built. [γ] Or, he is an honour. [δ] Or, a purchased people. [ε] Or, vertues.

[10] Wherfore brethren, geue rather diligence for to make your callyng and election sure: for yf ye do these thinges, ye shal neuer fall. [11] For by this meanes an entring in shalbe ministred vnto you abundantly into the euerlasting kyngdome of our Lord and Sauiour Iesus Christ.	[10] Vvherfore, brethren, labour the more that by good vvorkes you may make sure your vocation and election. for, doing these things, you shal not sinne at any time. [11] For so there shal be ministred to you aboundantly an entrance into the euerlasting kingdom of our Lord and Sauiour IESVS Christ. [12] For the vvhich cause I wil begin to admonish you alvvaies of these things: and you in deede knovving and being confirmed in the present truth [13] But I thinke it meete as long as I am in this tabernacle, to stirre you vp by admonition: [14] being certaine that the laying avvay of my tabernacle is at hand, according as our Lord IESVS Christ also signified to me. [15] And I vvil doe my diligence, you to haue often after my decease also, that you may keepe a memorie of these things.	[10] Wherefore, the rather, brethren, giue diligence to make your calling and election sure: for if yee doe these things, ye shall neuer fall. [11] For so an entrance shall be ministred vnto you abundantly, into the euerlasting kingdome of our Lord and Sauiour Iesus Christ. [12] Wherefore I wil not be negligent to put you alwayes in remembrance of these things, though yee know them, and bee stablished in the present trueth. [13] Yea, I thinke it meete, as long as I am in this tabernacle, to stirre you vp, by putting you in remembrance: [14] Knowing that shortly I must put off this my Tabernacle, euen as our Lord Iesus Christ hath shewed mee. [15] Moreouer, I will endeuour, that you may bee able after my decease, to haue these things alwayes in remembrance.
[12] Wherfore, I wil not be negligent to put you alwayes in remembrance of these thinges, thogh that ye knowe wel, and be stablished in the present truth. [13] For I thinke it mete as longe as I am in this tabernacle to stere you vp by putting you in remembrance, [14] Seing I knowe that the tyme is at hande that I must lay downe this my tabernacle, euen as our Lord Iesus Christ hath shewed me. [15] I wil enforce therfore, that ye may be able to haue remembrance of these thinges after my departing. [16] For we folowed not deceuable fables when we opened vnto you the power and commyng of our Lord Iesus Christ, but with our eyes we saw his maiestie:	[16] For, not hauing folovved vnlearned fables, haue vve made the povver and presence of our Lord IESVS Christ knovven to you: but made beholders of his greatenesse. [17] For, he receiuing from God his father honour and glorie, this maner of voice comming dovvne to him from the magnifical glorie, This is my beloued sonne in vvhom I haue pleased my self, heare him. [18] And this voice vve heard brought from heauen, vvhen vve vvere vvith him in the holy mounte.	[16] For wee haue not followed cunningly deuised fables, when wee made knowne vnto you the power and comming of our Lord Iesus Christ, but were eye witnesses of his Maiestie. [17] For hee receiued from God the Father, honour and glory, when there came such a voyce to him from the excellent glory, This is my beloued Sonne in whom I am well pleased. [18] And this voyce which came from heauen we heard, when wee were with him in the holy Mount.
[17] For he receaued of God the Father honour and glorie, when there came suche a voyce to him from the excellent glorie, This is my dere beloued Sonne, in whome I delite. [18] And this voyce we heard when it came from heauen, being with him in the holy mounte. [19] We haue also a moste sure worde of prophecie, to the which, ye do wel that ye take hede, as vnto a light that shyneth in a darcke place, vntil the daye dawne, and the daye starre aryse in your hearts. [20] So that ye fyrst knowe this, that no prophecie in the Scripture is of any priuate motion. [21] For the Prophets came not in olde tyme by the wil	[19] And we haue the prophetical vvord more sure: vvhich you doe vvel attending vnto, as to a candel shining in a darke place, vntil the day davvne, and the day starre arise in your hartes: [20] vnderstanding this first that no prophecie of scripture is made by priuate interpretation. [21] For, not by mans vvil vvas prophecie brought	[19] We haue also a more sure word of prophecie, whereunto ye doe well that yee take heed, as vnto a light that shineth in a darke place, vntill the day dawne, and the day starre arise in your hearts: [20] Knowing this first, that no prophecie of the Scripture is of any priuate interpretation: [21] For the prophecie came not [a]in old time by the will of man: but of man: but holy men of God spake as they were moued by the holy Gost. 2. THERE were false Prophetes also amonge the people, euen as there shalbe false teachers among you: which pryuely shal brynge in damnable heresies, euen denying the Lord, that hath boght them, and bringe vpon them selues swyft damnation, [2] And many shal folow their damnable wayes, by whom the way of trueth shalbe euil spoken of, [3] And through couetousnes shal they with fayned wordes make marchandise of you, whose iudgement long agone is not farre of, and their damnation slepeth not. [4] For yf God spared not the Angels, that had synned, but caste them downe into hell, and deliuered them into chaines of darkenes, to be kept vnto damnation: [5] Nether spared the old worlde, but saued Noe the eyght persone a preacher of rightuousnes, and broght in the floud vpon the world of the vngodly, [6] And turned the cities of the Sodomites and Gomorrhe into asshes: ouerthrew them, damned them, and made on them an ensample vnto all that after should lyue vngodly: [7] And he deliuered iuste Loth vexed with the vnclenly conuersation of the wicked. [8] (For being righteous, and dwelling among them, in seing and hearing, vexed his righteous soule from day to daye, with their vnlawful dedes.) [9] The Lord knoweth how to deliuer the godly out of tentation, and how to reserue the vniust vnto the day of iudgement for to be punished: [10] Namely them that walke after the flesshe, in the luste of vnclennes, and despice the Gouernement: presumpteous are they, and stande in their owne conceite, and feare not to speake euyl of them that are in dignitie. [11] When the Angels which are greater bothe in power, and might gyue not raylyng iudgement agaynst them before the Lord. [12] But these as brute beastes, led with natural sensualitie and made to that ende that being taken they shulde be destroyed, speake euil of those things which they knowe not, and	at any time: but the holy men of God spake, inspired vvith the holy Ghost. 2. BVT there vvere also false-prophets in the people, as also in you there shal be lying maisters vvhich shal bring in sectes of perdition, and denie him that hath bought them, the Lord: bringing vpon them selues speedie perdition. [2] And many shal folovv their riotousnesses, by vvhom the vvay of truth shal be blasphemed. [3] and in auarice shal they vvith feined vvordes make merchandise of you. vnto vvhom the iudgement novv long since ceaseth not: and their perdition slumbereth not. [4] For if God spared not Angels sinning: but with the ropes of Hel being dravven dovvne into Hel deliuered them to be tormented, that they should be reserued vnto iudgement: [5] and he spared not the original vvorld, but kept the eight, Noë, the preacher of iustice, bringing in the deluge vpon the vvorld of the impious. [6] And bringing the cities of the Sodomites and of the Gomorrheites into ashes, he damned them vvith subuersion, putting an example of them that shal doe impiously: [7] and deliuered iust Lot oppressed by the iniurie and luxurious conuersation of the abominable men. [8] for in sight and hearing he vvas iust: dvvelling vvith them vvho from day to day vexed the iust soule vvith vniust vvorkes. [9] Our Lord knovveth to deliuer the godly from tentation, but to reserue the vniust vnto the day of iudgement to be tormented: [10] and especially them vvhich vvalke after the flesh in concupiscence of vncleannesse, and contemne dominion, bold, self-pleasers: they feare not to bring in sectes, blaspheming. [11] Vvhereas Angels being greater in strength and povver, beare not the execrable iudgement against them. [12] But these men as vnreasonable beastes, naturally tending to the snare and into destruction, in those things vvhich they know not, blaspheming, shal perish in	holy men of God spake as they were moued by the holy Ghost. 2. BUT there were false prophets also among the people, euen as there shall be false teachers among you, who priuily shall bring in damnable heresies, euen denying the Lord that bought them, and bring vpon themselues swift destruction. [2] And many shall follow their [α] pernicious wayes, by reason of whom the way of trueth shall be euill spoken of: [3] And through couetousnesse shall they with fained words, make merchandise of you, whose iudgement now of a long time lingereth not, and their damnation slumbreth not. [4] For if God spared not the Angels that sinned, but cast them downe to hel, and deliuered them into chains of darknesse, to be reserued vnto iudgement: [5] And spared not the old world, but saued Noah the eighth person a preacher of righteousnesse, bringing in the Flood vpon the world of the vngodly: [6] And turning the cities of Sodom and Gomorrah into ashes, condemned them with an ouerthrow, making them an ensample vnto those that after should liue vngodly: [7] And deliuered iust Lot, vexed with the filthy conuersation of the wicked: [8] (For that righteous man dwelling among them, in seeing and hearing, vexed his righteous soule from day to day, with their vnlawfull deedes.) [9] The Lord knoweth how to deliuer the godly out of temptations, and to reserue the vniust vnto the day of iudgement to be punished: [10] But chiefly them that walke after the flesh in the lust of vncleannesse, and despise [β] gouernment. Presumptuous are they, selfe willed: they are not afraid to speake euill of dignities: [11] Whereas Angels which are greater in power and might, bring not railing accusation [γ] against them before the Lord. [12] But these, as natural bruit beasts made to be taken and destroyed, speake euill of the things that they vnderstand not, and shal vtterly perish in

I stere vp and warne youre pure myndes, [2] to call to remembraunce the wordes which were tolde before of the holy prophetes, and also the commaundement of vs the apostles of the lorde and saveour.

[3] This fyrst vnderstonde, that ther shall come in the last dayes mockers, which will walke after their awne lustes [4] and saye. Where is the promes of his commynge? For sence the fathers dyed, all thinges continue in the same estate wher in they were at the begynninge. [5] This they knowe not (and that willyngly) how that the hevens a great whyle ago were, and the erth that was in the water, appered vp out of the water by the worde of god: [6] by the which thinges, the worlde that then was, perisshed over flowen with the water. [7] But the hevens verely and erth which are now, are kept by the same worde in store, and reserved vnto fyre, agaynst the daye of iudgement and perdicion of vngodly men.

[8] Derely beloved, be not ignorant of this one thynge, how that one daye is with the lorde, as a thousande yeare, and a thousand yeare as one daye. [9] The lorde is not slacke to fulfill his promes, as some men count slacknes: but is pacient to vs warde and wolde have no man lost, but wolde receave all men to repentaunce. [10] Neverthelesse the daye of the lorde will come as a thefe in the nyght, in the which daye, the hevens shall perisshe with terrible noyes, and the elementes shall melt with heet, and the erth with the workes that are therin shall burne.

[11] Yf all these thinges shall perisshe, what maner persons ought ye to be in holy conversacion and godlynes: [12] lokyngefor and hastynge vnto the commynge of the daye of God, in which the hevens shall perisshe with fyre, and the elementes shalbe consumed with heate. [13] Neverthelesse we loke for a newe heven and a newe erth, accordynge to his promes, where in dwelleth rightewesnes.

[3] This fyrst vnderstande, that ther shall come in the last dayes, mockers (in disceatfulnesse) whych wyll walke after their awne lustes, [4] and saye: Where is the promes of his commyng? For sence the fathers dyed, all thynges contynue in the same estate wherin they were at the begynnynge. [5] For this they knowe not (and that wylfully) how that the heauens a great whyle ago were, and the erth out of the water appeared vp thorow the water, by the word of God: [6] by the whych thynges the world that then was, perisshed, beynge ouer runne wyth water. [7] But the heauens and erth whych are now, be kept by hys worde in store, and reserued vnto fyre, agaynst the daye of iudgement and perdicion of vngodly men.

[8] Dearely beloued, be not ignoraunt of this one thynge, how that one daye is wyth the Lord, as a thousande yeare, and a thousand yeare as one daye. [9] The Lord that hath promised, is not slacke, as some men count slacknes: but is pacyent to vs warde: for asmoch as he wolde haue no man lost, but wyll receaue all men to repentaunce.

[10] Neuerthelesse the daye of the Lorde wyll come as a thefe in the nyghte, in the which daye, the heauens shall passe awaye in maner of a tempest, and the elementes shall melt wyth heat: the erth also and the workes that are therin, shall burne. [11] Seyng then that all these thynges shall perisshe, what maner persons ought ye to be in holy conuersacion and godlynes: [12] lokynge for, and hastinge vnto the commynge of the daye of God, by whom the heauens shall perisshe with fyre, and the elementes shall melt wyth heate? [13] Neuerthelesse, we (acording to his promes) loke for a new heauen and a new earth, wherin dwelleth ryghtewesnes.

λανθανέτω ὑμᾶς, ἀγαπητοὶ, ὅτι μία ἡμέρα παρὰ Κυρίῳ ὡς χίλια ἔτη, καὶ χίλια ἔτη ὡς ἡμέρα μία. 9 οὐ βραδύνει [d] ὁ| Κύριος τῆς ἐπαγγελίας, ὥς τινες βραδυτῆτα ἡγοῦνται· ἀλλὰ μακροθυμεῖ [e] εἰς ἡμᾶς,| μὴ βουλόμενός τινας ἀπολέσθαι, ἀλλὰ πάντας εἰς μετάνοιαν χωρῆσαι. 10 Ἥξει δὲ ἡ ἡμέρα Κυρίου ὡς κλέπτης [f], ἐν ᾗ οἱ οὐρανοὶ ῥοιζηδὸν παρελεύσονται, στοιχεῖα δὲ καυσούμενα λυθήσονται, καὶ γῆ καὶ τὰ ἐν αὐτῇ ἔργα κατακαήσεται. 11 Τούτων οὖν πάντων λυομένων, ποταποὺς δεῖ ὑπάρχειν ὑμᾶς ἐν ἁγίαις ἀναστροφαῖς καὶ εὐσεβείαις, 12 προσδοκῶντας καὶ σπεύδοντας τὴν παρουσίαν τῆς τοῦ Θεοῦ ἡμέρας, δι' ἣν οὐρανοὶ πυρούμενοι λυθήσονται, καὶ στοιχεῖα καυσούμενα τήκεται; 13 Καινοὺς δὲ οὐρανοὺς καὶ γῆν καινὴν κατὰ τὸ ἐπάγγελμα αὐτοῦ προσδοκῶμεν, ἐν οἷς δικαιοσύνη κατοικεῖ.

GENEVA—1557.

I stere vp, and warne your pure myndes, 2 To call to remembrance the wordes, which were told before of the holy Prophets, and also the commandement of vs the Apostles of the Lord and Sauiour.

3 This fyrst vnderstande, that there shal come in the last days, mockers, which wyl walke after their lustes, 4 And say, Where is the promis of his comming? for synce the fathers died, all thinges continue in the same estate wher in they were at the beginning. 5 For this they knowe not (and that willingly) how that the heauens a great whyle ago were, by the worde of God, and the earth that was in the water appeared vp out of the water, 6 Wherfore the world that then was, perished, ouerflowed with the water.

7 But the heauens and earth, which are now, are kept by the same worde in store, and reserued vnto fyre, against the day of damnation, and destruction of vngodly men. 8 Derely beloued, be not ignorant of this one thinge, how that owne day is with the Lord, as a thousand yere, and a thousand yere, as one day. 9 The Lord is not slacke to fulfil his promes (as some men count slacknes) but is pacient to vswarde, and wolde haue no man lost, but woulde receaue all men to repentance.

10 And the day of the Lord wyl come as a thiefe in the night, in the which day, the heauens shal passe away with a noyse, and the elementes shal melt with heate, and the earth with the workes, that are therin shal burne. 11 Seing therfore all these thinges muste be dissolued, what maner persons oght ye to be in holy conuersation and godlynes? 12 Loking for, and hastyng vnto the comming in the day of God, in which the heauens shal be dissolued with fyre, and the elementes shal melt with heat. 13 But, we loke for new heauens, and a newe earth, according to his promis, wherin dwelleth righteousnes.

by admonition your sincere minde: 2 that you may be mindeful of those vvordes vvhich I told you before from the holy Prophetes, and of your Apostles, of the preceptes of our Lord and Sauiour. 3 Knovving this first, that in the last daies shal come mockers in deceit, vvalking according to their ovvne concupiscences, 4 saying, Vvhere is his promise or his comming? For since the time that the fathers slept, al things do so perseuère from the beginning of creature. 5 for they are vvilfully ignorant of this, that the heauens vvere before, and the earth, out of vvater, and through vvater, consisting by the vvord of God: 6 by the vvhich, that vvorld then, being ouerflovved vvith vvater perished.

7 But the heauens vvhich novv are, and the earth, are by the same word kept in store, reserued to fire vnto the day of iudgement and of the perdition of the impious men. 8 But this one thing be not ignorant of, my deerest, that one day with our Lord is as a thousand yeres, and a thousand yeres as one day. 9 Our Lord slacketh not his promis, as some do esteeme it: but he doth patiently for you, not vvilling that any perish, but that al returne to penance. 10 And the day of our Lord shal come as a theefe in the vvhich the heauens shal passe vvith great violence, but the elementes shal be resolued vvith heate, and the earth and the vvorkes vvhich are in it, shal be burnt.

11 Therfore vvhereas al these thinges are to be dissolued: vvhat maner of men ought you to be in holy conuersations and godlinesses, 12 expecting and hasting vnto the comming of the day of our Lord, by vvhich the heauens burning shal be resolued, and the elementes shal melt vvith the heate of fire: 13 But vve expect nevv heauens and a nevv earth according to his promises, in vvhich iustice inhabiteth.

AUTHORISED—1611.

vp your pure mindes by way of remembrance: 2 That ye may be mindfull of the words which were spoken before by the holy Prophets, and of the Commandement of vs the Apostles of the Lord and Sauiour: 3 Knowing this first, that there shall come in the last dayes scoffers, walking after their owne lusts, 4 And saying, Where is the promise of his coming? For since the Fathers fell asleepe, all things continue as they were from the beginning of the creation. 5 For this they willingly are ignorant of, that by the word of God the heauens were of old, and the earth [α]standing out of the water, and in the water, 6 Whereby the world that then was, being ouerflowed with water, perished. 7 But the heauens and the earth which are now, by the same word are kept in store, reserued vnto fire against the day of Iudgement, and perdition of vngodly men.

8 But (beloued) be not ignorant of this one thing, that one day is with the Lord as a thousand yeeres, and a thousand yeeres as one day. 9 The Lord is not slacke concerning his promise (as some men count slackenesse) but is long-suffring to vs-ward, not willing that any should perish, but that all should come to repentance. 10 But the day of the Lord will come as a thiefe in the night, in the which the heauens shall passe away with a great noise, and the Elements shal melt with feruent heat, the earth also and the workes that are therein shall bee burnt vp. 11 Seeing then that all these things shall be dissolued, what maner of persons ought ye to be in all holy conuersation, and godlinesse, 12 [β]Looking for and hasting vnto the comming of the day of God, wherein the heauens being on fire shall be dissolued, and the Elements shall melt with feruent heat? 13 Neuerthelesse we, according to his promise, looke for new heauens, and a new earth, wherein dwelleth righteousnesse.

GENEVA—1557.

[14] Wherfore dearly beloued, seing that ye loke for suche thinges, be diligent that ye may be founde of him in peace, without spotte and vndefiled. [15] And suppose that the longe suffering of the Lord is saluation, euen as our dearly beloued brother Paul, according to the wysdome geuen vnto hym, wrote to you. [16] As one, almoste in euery Epistle speakyng of suche thinges: among which things some ar harde to be vnderstand, which they that are vnlearned and vnstable peruert, as they do also other Scriptures vnto their owne destruction.

[17] Ye therfore beloued, seyng ye knowe these things before hande, beware, leste ye be also plucked away with the errour of the wicked, and fall from your owne stedfastnes. [18] But growe in grace, and in the knowledge of our Lord and Sauiour Iesus Christe: to whome be glorie both now and for euer. Amen.

RHEIMS—1582.

[14] For the vvhich cause my deerest, expecting these things, labour earnestly to be found immaculate and vnspotted to him in peace: [15] and the longanimitie of our Lord, do ye account saluation, as also our most deere brother Paul according to the vvisdom giuen him hath vvritten to you: [16] as also in al epistles, speaking in them of these things, in the vvhich are certaine things hard to be vnderstoode, vvhich the vnlearned and vnstable depraue, as also the rest of the Scriptures, to their ovvne perdition.

[17] You therfore brethren, foreknovving, take heede lest ledde aside by the errour of the vnwise you fal away from your owne stedfastnes. [18] but grovv in grace and in knovvledge of our Lord and sauiour IESVS Christ. To him be glorie both novv and vnto the day of eternitie. Amen.

AUTHORISED—1611.

[14] Wherefore (beloued) seeing that ye looke for such things, be diligent that ye may be found of him in peace, without spot, and blamelesse. [15] And account that the long suffering of the Lord is saluation, euen as our beloued brother Paul also, according to the wisedome giuen vnto him, hath written vnto you. [16] As also in all his Epistles, speaking in them of these things, in which are some things hard to be vnderstood, which they that are vnlearned and vnstable wrest, as they doe also the other Scriptures, vnto their owne destruction.

[17] Yee therefore, beloued, seeing yee know these things before, beware lest yee also being led away with the errour of the wicked, fall from your owne stedfastnesse. [18] But grow in grace, and in the knowledge of our Lord and Sauiour Iesus Christ: to him be glory both now and for euer. Amen.

hee that loueth not his brother. [11] For this is the [a]message that yee heard from the beginning, that wee should loue one another. [12] Not as Cain, who was of that wicked one, and slew his brother: and wherefore slew hee him? because his owne workes were euill, and his brothers righteous.

[13] Marueile not, my brethren, if the world hate you. [14] Wee know that wee haue passed from death vnto life, because wee loue the brethren: he that loueth not his brother, abideth in death. [15] Whosoeuer hateth his brother, is a murtherer, and yee know that no murtherer hath eternall life abiding in him. [16] Hereby perceiue wee the loue of God, because he layed downe his life for vs, and wee ought to lay downe our liues for the brethren. [17] But who so hath this worlds good, and seeth his brother hath need, and shutteth vp his bowels of compassion from him, how dwelleth the loue of God in him? [18] My little children, let vs not loue in word, neither in tongue, but in deed and in trueth. [19] And hereby wee know that wee are of the trueth, and shall [β]assure our hearts before him. [20] For if our heart condemne vs, God is greater then our heart, and knoweth all things.

[21] Beloued, if our heart condemne vs not, then haue wee confidence towards God. [16] And vve haue knovven and haue beleeued the charitie, vvhich God hath in vs. God is charitie: and he that abideth in charitie, abideth in God, and God in him. [17] In this is charitie perfited vvith vs, that vve may haue confidence in the day of iudgement: because as he is, vve also are in the vvorld. [18] Feare is not in charitie: but perfect charitie casteth out feare, because feare hath painefulnes. and he that feareth, is not perfect in charitie. [19] Let vs therfore loue God, because God first hath loued vs.

[20] If any man shal say, that I loue God: and hateth his brother, he is a lier. For he that loueth not his brother vvhom he seeth: God vvhom he seeth not, hovv can he loue? [21] And this commaundement vve haue from God: that he vvhich loueth God, loue also his brother.

5. WHOSOEVER beleeueth that IESVS is Christ, is borne of God. And euery one that loueth him vvhich begat: loueth him also vvhich vvas borne of him. [2] In this vve knovv that vve loue the children of God: vvhen as vve loue God, and keepe his commaundementes. [3] For this is the charitie of God, that vve keepe his commaundementes: and his commaundementes are not heauy. [4] Because al that is borne of God, ouercommeth the vvorld. and this is the victorie vvhich ouercommeth the vvorld, our faith.

[5] Vvho is he that ouercommeth the vvorld, but he that beleeueth that IESVS is the sonne of God? [6] This is he that came by vvater and bloud IESVS Christ: not in vvater only, but in vvater and bloud. And it is the Spirit vvhich testifieth, that Christ is the truth.

of the world. [15] Whosoeuer shall confesse that Iesus is the Sonne of God, God dwelleth in him, and he in God. [16] And we haue knowen and beleeued the loue that God hath to vs. God is loue, and hee that dwelleth in loue, dwelleth in God, and God in him. [17] Herein is [a] our loue made perfect, that we may haue boldnesse in the day of Iudgement, because as he is, so are we in this world. [18] There is no feare in loue, but perfect loue casteth out feare: because feare hath torment: hee that feareth, is not made perfect in loue.

[19] Wee loue him: because he first loued vs. [20] If a man say, I loue God, and hateth his brother, he is a lyar. For he that loueth not his brother whom hee hath seene, how can he loue God whom he hath not seene? [21] And this commandement haue we from him, that he who loueth God, loue his brother also.

5. WHOSOEUER beleeueth that Iesus is the Christ, is borne of God: and euery one that loueth him that begate, loueth him also that is begotten of him. [2] By this we know that wee loue the children of God, when we loue God and keepe his commandements. [3] For this is the loue of God, that we keepe his commandements, and his commandements are not grieuous. [4] For whatsoeuer is borne of God, ouercommeth the world, and this is the victorie that ouercommeth the world, euen our faith. [5] Who is he that ouercommeth the world, but he that beleeueth that Iesus is the Sonne of God? [6] This is hee that came by water and blood, euen Iesus Christ, not by water onely, but by water and blood: and it is the Spirit that beareth witnesse, because the Spirit is trueth. [7] For there are three that beare record in heauen, the Father, the Word, and the

This commandement is, that as ye haue heard from the begynnyng ye should walke in it.

7 For many deceauers are entred into the worlde, which confesse not that Iesus Christe is come in the fleshe. He that is such one is a deceauer and an Antichrist. 8 Loke to your selues, that we lose not that we haue wroght: but that we may receaue a full reward. 9 Whosoeuer transgresseth and bydeth not in the doctrine of Christ, hath not God. He that continueth in the doctrine of Christe, hath both the Father and the Sonne.

THE Senior to the lady Elect and her children, vvhom I loue in truth, and not I onely, but also al that haue knowen the truth, 2 for the truth vvhich abideth in vs, and shal be vvith vs for euer. 3 Grace be vvith you, mercie, peace from God the Father, and from Christ Iesvs the sonne of the Father in truth, and charitie.

4 I vvas exceding glad, because I haue found of thy children vvalking in truth, as vve haue receiued commaundement of the Father. 5 And novv I beseeche thee Lady, not as vvriting a nevv commaundement to thee, but that vvhich vve haue had from the beginning, that vve loue one an other. 6 And this is charitie, that vve vvalke according to his commaundements. For this is the commaundement, that as you haue heard from the beginning, you walke in the same: 7 because many seducers are gone out into the vvorld, which do not confesse Iesvs Christ to haue come into flesh: this is a a seducer and an antichrist.

8 Looke to your selues, that you lose not the thinges vvhich you haue vvrought: but that you may receiue a ful revvard. 9 Euery one that reuolteth, and persisteth not in the doctrine of Christ: hath not God. THE Elder vnto the elect Ladie, and her children, whom I loue in the truth: and not I onely, but also all they that haue knowen the trueth: 2 For the truths sake which dwelleth in vs, and shall be with vs for euer: 3 Grace bee with you, mercy, and peace from God the Father, and from the Lord Iesus Christ, the Sonne of the Father in trueth and loue. 4 I reioyced greatly, that I found of thy children walking in trueth, as wee haue receiued a commandement from the Father.

5 And now I beseech thee Lady, not as though I wrote a new commandement vnto thee: but that which we had from the beginning, that wee loue one another. 6 And this is loue, that wee walke after his Commandements. This is the Commandement, that as yee haue heard from the beginning, yee should walke in it. 7 For many deceiuers are entred into the world, who confesse not that Iesus Christ is come in the flesh. This is a deceiuer, and an Antichrist. 8 Looke to your selues that wee loose not those things which wee haue [a] wrought, but that we receiue a full reward.

but I will confesse his name before my Father, and before his Angels. 6 Hee that hath an eare, let him heare what the Spirit saith vnto the Churches.

7 And to the Angel of the Church in Philadelphia write, These things saith he that is holy, he that is true, he that hath the key of Dauid, he that openeth, and no man shutteth, and shutteth, and no man openeth; 8 I know thy workes: behold, I haue set before thee an open doore, and no man can shut it: for thou hast a little strength, and hast kept my word, and hast not denied my Name. 9 Behold, I will make them of the synagogue of Satan, which say they are Iewes, and are not, but doe lie: behold, I will make them to come and worship before thy feet, and to know that I haue loued thee.

10 Because thou hast kept the word of my patience, I also will keepe thee from the houre of temptation, which shall come vpon all the world, to trie them that dwell vpon the earth. 11 Behold, I come quickely, hold that fast which thou hast, that no man take thy crowne. 12 Him that ouercommeth, will I make a pillar in the Temple of my God, and he shall goe no more out: and I wil write vpon him the Name of my God, and the name of the Citie of my God, which is new Hierusalem, which commeth downe out of heauen from my God: And I will write vpon him my new name. 13 Hee that hath an eare, let him heare what the Spirit saith vnto the Churches.

14 And vnto the Angel of the Church [a] of the Laodiceans, write, These things saith the Amen, the faithfull and true witnesse, the beginning of the creation of God: 15 I know thy workes, that thou art neither cold nor hot, I would thou wert cold or hot. 16 So then because thou art lukewarme, and neither cold nor hot, I will spew thee out of my mouth:

[7] And the first beast, like to a lion: and the second beast, like to a calfe: and the third beast, hauing the face as it vvere of a man: and the fourth beast, like to an egle flying. [8] And the foure beastes, euery one of them had sixe vvinges round about: and vvithin they are ful of eies. and they had no rest day and night, saying, Holy, Holy, Holy, Lord God omnipotent, vvhich vvas, and vvhich is, and vvhich shal come.	there was a sea of glasse like vnto Crystall: and in the middest of the Throne, and round about the Throne, were foure beasts ful of eyes before and behinde. [7] And the first beast was like a Lyon, and the second beast like a Calfe, and the third beast had a face as a man, and the fourth beast was like a flying Eagle. [8] And the foure beasts had each of them sixe wings about him, and they were full of eyes within, and they [a] rest not day and night, saying, Holy, holy, holy, Lord God Almighty, which was, and is, and is to come.
[9] And when those beastes gaue glorie, and honour, and thankes to hym that sate on the throne, which lyueth for euer and euer: [10] The four and twenty Elders fell doune before him, that sate on the throne, and worshipped him that liueth for euer, and cast their crounes before the throne saying, [11] Thou art worthy ò Lord to receaue glorie and honour, and power, for thou hast created all thinges, and for thy wylles sake they are, and haue bene created.	[9] And vvhen those beastes gaue glorie and honour and benediction to him that sitteth vpon the throne, that liueth for euer and euer: [10] the foure and tvventie seniors fel dovvne before him that sitteth in the throne, and adored him that liueth for euer and euer, and cast their crownes before the throne, saying, [11] Thou art vvorthie O Lord our God to receiue glorie and honour and povver: because thou hast created al thinges, and for thy vvil they vvere and haue been created.	[9] And when those beasts giue glory, and honour, and thankes to him that sate on the Throne, who liueth for euer and euer, [10] The foure and twenty Elders fall downe before him that sate on the Throne, and worship him that liueth for euer and euer, and cast their crownes before the Throne, saying, [11] Thou art worthy, O Lord, to receiue glory, and honour, and power: for thou hast created all things, and for thy pleasure they are, and were created.
5. AND I sawe in the right hande of him that sate in the throne, a Booke wrytten wythin and on the backsyde, sealed wyth seuen seales. [2] And I sawe a stronge Angel which preached with a lowde voyce, Who is worthy to open the Boke, and to lose the seales therof? [3] And no man in heauen, nor in earth, nether vnder the earth, was able to open the Boke, nether to loke theron. [4] Then I wept muche, because no man was found worthy to open, and to reade the Boke, nether to loke theron.	5. AND I savv in the right hand of him that sate vpon the throne, a booke vvritten vvithin and vvithout, sealed vvith seuen seales. [2] And I savv a strong Angel, preaching vvith a loude voice, Vvho is vvorthie to open the booke, and to loose the seales thereof? [3] And no man vvas able neither in heauen nor in earth, nor vnder the earth, to open the booke, nor looke on it. [4] And I vvept much because no man vvas found vvorthie to open the booke, nor to see it.	5. AND I saw in the right hand of him that sate on the Throne, a booke written within, and on the backside, sealed with seuen seales. [2] And I saw a strong Angel proclaiming with a lowd voyce; Who is worthy to open the booke, and to loose the seales thereof? [3] And no man in heauen, nor in earth, neither vnder the earth, was able to open the booke, neither to looke thereon. [4] And I wept much, because no man was found worthy to open, and to reade the booke, neither to looke thereon.
[5] And one of the Elders sayd vnto me, Wepe not, Beholde the lion of the tribe of Iuda, the rote of Dauid, hath obtayned to open the Boke, and to lose the seuen seales therof. [6] Then I behelde, and lo, in the middes of the throne, and of the foure beastes, and in the middes of the Elders,	[5] And one of the seniors said to me, Vveepe not: behold the lion of the tribe of Iuda, the roote of Dauid, hath vvonne, to open the booke, and to loose the seuen seales thereof. [6] And I savv, and behold in the middes of the throne and of the foure beastes and in the middes of the seniors, a Lambe	[5] And one of the Elders saith vnto me, Weepe not: behold, the Lion of the tribe of Iuda, the roote of Dauid, hath preuailed to open the booke, and to loose the seuen seales thereof. 11. AND there was giuen mee a reed like vnto a rod, and the Angel stood, saying, Rise, and measure the Temple of God, and the Altar, and them that worship therein. 2 But the Court which is without the Temple [α] leaue out, and measure it not: for it is giuen vnto the Gentiles, and the holy City shall they tread vnder foot fourty and two moneths. 3 And [β] I will giue power vnto my two Witnesses, and they shall prophesie a thousand two hundred and threescore dayes clothed in sackcloth. 4 These are the two Oliue trees, and the two Candlestickes, standing before the God of the earth.

5 And if any man will hurt them, fire proceedeth out of their mouth, and deuoureth their enemies: and if any man will hurt them, hee must in this maner be killed. 6 These haue power to shut heauen, that it raine not in the dayes of their prophecie: and haue power ouer waters to turne them to blood, and to smite the earth with all plagues, as often as they will. 7 And when they shall haue finished their testimony, the beast that ascendeth out of the bottomlesse pit, shall make war against them, and shall ouercome them, and kill them. 8 And their dead bodies shall lie in the street of the great City, which spiritually is called Sodome and Egypt, where also our Lord was crucified. 9 And they of the people and kinreds, and tongues, and nations, shall see their dead bodies three daies and an halfe, and shall not suffer their dead bodies to be put in graues. 10 And they that dwell vpon the earth shall reioyce ouer them, and make merry, and shall send gifts one to another, because these two Prophets tormented them that dwelt on the earth.

11 And after three dayes and an halfe

[α] Gr. cast out. [β] Or, I will giue vnto my two witnesses that they may prophesie.

AND I savv a nevv heauen and a nevv earth. for the first heauen, and the first earth vvas gone, and the sea novv is not. 2 And I Iohn savv the holy citie Hierusalem nevv descending from heauen, prepared of God, as a bride adorned for her husband. 3 And I heard a loud voice from the throne saying: Behold the tabernacle of God vvith men, and he vvil dvvel vvith them. And they shal be his people: and he God vvith them shal be their God.	21. AND I saw a new heauen and a new earth: for the first heauen, and the first earth were passed away, and there was no more sea. 2 And I Iohn saw the holy City, new Hierusalem comming down from God out of heauen, prepared as a bride adorned for her husband. 3 And I heard a great voice out of heauen, saying, Behold, the Tabernacle of God is with men, and he wil dwel with them, and they shal be his people, and God himselfe shall be with them, and be their God.
4 And God shal wipe away all teares from their eyes: and there shalbe no more death, nether sorowe, nether crying, nether shal there be any more payne, for the first thynges are gone. 5 And he that sate vpon the throne, sayd, Beholde I make all thinges newe: and he sayd vnto me, Write, for these wordes are faithful and true. 6 And he sayd vnto me, It is done, I am α and ω, the beginning and the end. I wil geue to him that is a thirst, of the wel of the water of lyfe, frely. 7 He that ouercometh, shal inheret all thinges, and I wil be his God, and he shal be my sonne.	4 and God shal vvipe avvay al teares from their eies: and death shal be no more. nor mourning, nor crying, neither shal there be sorovv any more, vvhich first thinges are gone. 5 And he that sate in the throne, said: Behold I make al thinges nevv. And he said to me: Vvrite, because these vvordes be most faithful and true. 6 And he said to me: It is done, I am Alpha and Omega: the beginning and the end. To him that thirsteth I vvil giue of the fountaine of the water of life, gratis. 7 He that shal ouercome, shal possesse these thinges, and I vvil be his God: and he shal be my sonne.	4 And God shall wipe away all teares from their eyes: and there shall be no more death, neither sorrow, nor crying, neither shall there bee any more paine: for the former things are passed away. 5 And he that sate vpon the throne, said, Behold, I make all things new. And he said vnto me, Write: for these words are true and faithfull. 6 And he said vnto me, It is done: I am Alpha and Omega, the beginning and the end. I wil giue vnto him that is athirst, of the fountaine of the water of life freely. 7 He that ouercommeth, shall inherite all things, and I will bee his God, and he shall be my sonne.

pure gold, as shining glasse. [22] and I sawe no temple therin: For the Lord God almighty and the Lambe are the temple of it.	one seueral pearle. and the streate of the citie pure gold, as it vvere transpárent glasse. [22] And temple I savv not therein. for our Lord the God omnipotent is the temple thereof, and the Lambe.	the streete of the citie was pure gold, as it were transparent glasse. [22] And I saw no Temple therein: For the Lord God Almighty, and the Lambe, are the Temple of it.
[23] And this citie hath no nede of the sunne nether of the mone to lighten it: for the glorie of God did light it: and the Lambe is the light of it. [24] And the people which are saued shal walke in the light of it: and the kynges of the earth shal bring their glorie vnto it. [25] And the gates of it shal not shut by day: for there shalbe no night there. [26] And the glorie, and honour of the Gentils shalbe broght vnto it. [27] And there shal entre into it none vncleane thing: nether whatsoeuer worketh abomination or maketh lies: but they which are written in the Lambes Boke of life.	[23] And the citie needeth not sunne nor moone, to shine in it. for the glorie of God hath illuminated it, and the Lambe is the lampe thereof. [24] And the Gentiles shal vvalke in the light of it: and the kinges of the earth shal bring their glorie and honour into it. [25] And the gates thereof shal not be shut by day: for there shal be no night there. [26] And they shal bring the glorie and honour of nations into it. [27] There shal not enter into it any polluted thing, nor that doeth abomination and maketh lie, but they that are vvritten in the booke of life of the Lambe.	[23] And the citie had no need of the Sunne, neither of the Moone to shine in it: for the glory of God did lighten it, and the Lambe is the light thereof. [24] And the nations of them which are saued, shall walke in the light of it: and the kings of the earth doe bring their glory and honour into it. [25] And the gates of it shall not bee shut at all by day: for there shall bee no night there. [26] And they shall bring the glory and honour of the nations into it. [27] And there shall in no wise enter into it any thing that defileth, neither whatsoeuer worketh abomination, or maketh a lie: but they which are written in the Lambes booke of life.
22. AND he shewed me a pure riuer of water of life clere as Cristal: proceding out of the throne of God and of the Lambe. [2] In the myddes of the strete of it, and of ether side of the riuer, was there wood of life: which bare twelue maner of frutes: and gaue frute euery moneth: and the leaues of the wodde serued to heale the people withall. [3] And there shalbe no more cursse, but the seate of God and the Lambe shalbe in it: and his seruantes shal serue him. [4] And they shal se his face, and his Name shalbe in their forheades.	22. AND he shevved me a riuer of liuing water, cleere as crystal, proceding from the seate of God and of the Lambe. [2] In the middes of the streate thereof, and on both sides of the riuer, the tree of life, yelding tvvelue fruites, rendring his fruite euery moneth, and the leaues of the tree for the curing of the Gentiles. [3] And no curse shal be any more: and the seate of God and of the Lambe shal be in it, and his seruantes shal serue him. [4] And they shal see his face: and his name in their foreheads.	22. AND he shewed mee a pure riuer of water of life, cleere as Crystall, proceeding out of the Throne of God, and of the Lambe. [2] In the middest of the streete of it, and of either side of the riuer, was there the tree of life, which bare twelue manner of fruits, and yeelded her fruit euery moneth: and the leaues of the tree were for the healing of the nations. [3] And there shall bee no more curse, but the Throne of God, and of the Lambe shall bee in it, and his seruants shall serue him. [4] And they shall see his face, and his Name shall be in their foreheads.
[5] And there shalbe no night there, and they nede no candle, nether light of the sunne: for the Lord God geueth them light, and they shal raigne for euermore. The increased zeal which is daily manifested for the study of the Scriptures in their original languages seems to hold out to the friends of Theological learning the best hope of a continuance of true Church Scholarship. For although the great and essential truths of Revelation are placed within the reach of all who can study the English Translation, yet we think that few will deny but that much instruction, of no ordinary value and interest, rewards those who read in the Original the writings which form the basis of their private studies and their public teaching; and who thus enjoy the advantage of examining the work itself, instead of trusting wholly to a translation however faithful and spirited.

The general arguments, however, in favour of the study of Hebrew in particular, have been satisfactorily responded to by the demand for all well executed works on that subject, whether as regards Grammars and Lexicons, or publications for the explanation of particular portions of Holy Writ; so

ISAIAH, CHAP. I

THE vision of Isaiah the son of Amoz, which he saw concerning Judah and Jerusalem in the days of Uzziah, Jotham, Ahaz, and Hezekiah, kings of Judah. ² Hear, O heavens, and give ear, O earth: for the LORD hath spoken, I have nourished and brought up children, and they have rebelled against me. ³ The ox knoweth his owner, and the ass his master's crib: but Israel doth not know, my people doth not consider. ⁴ Ah sinful nation, a people[a] laden with iniquity, a seed of evil-doers, children that are corrupters: they have forsaken the LORD, they have provoked the Holy One of Israel unto anger, they are[b] gone away backward. ⁵ Why should ye be stricken any more? ye will[c] revolt more and more: the whole head is sick, and the whole heart faint. ⁶ From the sole of the foot even unto the head there is no soundness in it; but wounds, and bruises, and putrifying sores: they have not been closed, neither bound up, neither mollified with[d] ointment. ⁷ Your country is desolate, your cities are burned with fire: your land, strangers devour it in your presence, and it is desolate, [e] as overthrown by strangers.

ISAIA, CAP. I.

Visio Isaïæ filii Amos, quam vidit super Judam et Jerusalem in diebus Oziæ, Joathan, Achaz, et Ezechiæ, regum Juda. 2 Audite, cæli, et auribus percipe, terra, quoniam Dominus locutus est. Filios enutrivi, et exaltavi: ipsi autem spreverunt me. 3 Cognovit bos possessorem suum, et asinus præsepe domini sui: Israël autem me non cognovit, et populus meus non intellexit. 4 Væ genti peccatrici, populo gravi iniquitate, semini nequam, filiis sceleratis: dereliquerunt Dominum, blasphemaverunt sanctum Israël, abalienati sunt retrorsum.

5 Super quo percutiam vos ultra, addentes prævaricationem? omne caput languidum, et omne cor mœrens. 6 A planta pedis usque ad verticem, non est in eo sanitas: vulnus, et livor, et plaga tumens, non est circumligata, nec curata medicamine, neque fota oleo. 7 Terra vestra deserta, civitates vestræ succensæ igni: regionem vestram coram vobis alieni devorant, et desolabitur sicut in vastitate hostili. 8 Et derelinquetur filia that it may safely be asserted, that a knowledge of Hebrew is universally admitted as indispensable for the Theological writer, and certainly is a most valuable qualification for any religious instructor.

The object of the publication now contemplated may be briefly explained. The Editor having been for many years accustomed to read, preparatory to each Sunday, the Lessons of that day in their originals, and having of late years been successful in introducing that study among the higher pupils of his school, has met with the difficulties which might naturally be expected in such reading. For while we study in the Hebrew, we must compare the older versions, at least the Septuagint and the Vulgate; and to have these together with the English Translation before the eye at one view, requires an accommodation not afforded by any one book yet published. The only volume within ordinary reach which would seem calculated for such a purpose, is the Polyglot Bible, in Eight Languages, of Mr. Bagster; but the very compactness and comprehensiveness of that book, required a type smaller than might be convenient to many.

There are also many Clergymen well acquainted with Hebrew who gradually allow their knowledge of it to drop, or at least, do not extend it, because they feel at a loss how to select portions which they may follow up with advantage.

There are many in our Cathedrals and Colleges, and in Churches, where more than one Minister is engaged in the service, who, it is presumed, would gladly avail themselves of the recurrence of these well-known selections, to have them brought before their eye with every illustration, as often as they are repeated in their hearing. It was to meet the views of such of the Clergy as are thus situated that this volume was contemplated; but more especially in the hope that the facilities here afforded to those who are about to take Holy Orders, might enable them to comprehend more perfectly the portions of the Old Testament which the Church has thus selected, and these might lead them to a more extended but equally minute investigation of all Scripture.

The Editor no sooner submitted the idea of this publication to Messrs. Bagster and Sons, but they undertook it with that zeal and cordiality which has so long characterized their exertions in all departments of Biblical literature, and while their name will be a sufficient guarantee to the Public for the execution and accuracy of the work, the Editor is happy that, by being allowed to give his services as it passes through the press, he is enabled to offer this testimony of his reverence for the Church, and his sincere desire to aid her teaching.
